Performing Propaganda

Musical Life and Culture in Paris during the First World War

Rachel Moore

THE BOYDELL PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations vi

List of Tables viii

Acknowledgements ix

List of Abbreviations xi

Introduction 1

1 Musical Institutions on the Home Front 17

2 The Origins of Wartime Musical Propaganda: From the Written Word to Performing Globetrotters 45

3 Saint-Saëns's Germanophilie as a Propaganda Prototype 65

4 Propaganda on the Concert Stage: The Matinées Nationales 97

5 Creativity and Compromise at the Opéra 139

6 Music Publishing and the Édition Française de Musique Classique 173

Conclusion 217

Bibliography 221

Index 235