

CONTENTS

Preface to the Paperback Edition ix

To Begin With . . . 1

THE LORE 5

What Is North Carolina Barbecue? 7

The Prehistory of Tar Heel 'Cue 11

Eastern-Style Evolves 21

The Piedmont Challenge 31

Tar Heel Barbecues 46

The Barbecue Restaurant 60

THE FOOD 79

Cooking Barbecue at Home 81

Sauces and Dips 105

Slaw, and the Sandwich 120

Cornbread, Hushpuppies, and the Tray 130

Stew, and the Plate 143

Optional Side Dishes 150

Desserts 164

Something to Drink with That 192

 THE PEOPLE 201

- The Fundamentalists: Skylight Inn, Ayden 203
The Establishment (Eastern): Wilber's, Goldsboro 214
The Visionary: Ed Mitchell, Wilson 220
The Younger Generation (Eastern): High Cotton, Kitty Hawk 227
On the Fault Line: Allen & Son, Chapel Hill 231
The Entrepreneurs: Stamey's, Greensboro 241
The Establishment (Piedmont): Lexington Barbecue, Lexington 249
The Lexington Diaspora: Bridges Barbecue Lodge, Shelby 258
The Younger Generation (Piedmont): Cook's Barbecue, Cotton Grove 265
The Freelancer: Glen White, Cabarrus County 270
Chevaliers du Tasty Swine 276

In Conclusion: The Future of North Carolina Barbecue 279

To Learn More . . . 297

Acknowledgments 303

Credits 305

Index 307

