

History of West Africa
since 1800

Elizabeth Isichei, M.A. D. Phil.
Professor of History, University of Jos

MACMILLAN

Contents

1 West Africa and a Wider World in 1800
The natural setting	1
Economic life and external trade	2
Rich and poor, slave and free	9
The spread of the world religions	13
2 Building New Societies: The Islamic Model
Introduction	18
The jihad in Gobir	19
The jihad spreads beyond Gobir	25
The jihad in Massina	29
Renewal without jihad: Borno	34
The jihad in the Bambara Kingdoms	40
The Senegambia	48
3 Innovation and Reform in the States of Guinea
Asante	58
Fante	67
The Yoruba	69
The Fon Kingdom of Dahomey	80
Benin	89
Small-scale states	99
The Igbo	101
The Niger Delta	114
4 Building New Societies: Western Models
The Creoles of Sierra Leone	125
Liberia	136
The Egba United Board of Management	147
5 Patterns of External Change
The decline of the slave trade	149
The growth of legitimate trade	151
The Christian missionary presence	155
European exploration	159
European political encroachment	162
Reasons for imperialism	172

6 Resistance to Alien Conquest
Why European conquest was possible	176
Fighting empires: 1. Samori	181
Fighting empires: 2. Rabih	191
Resistance in small-scale societies: 1. Ivory Coast	194
Resistance in small-scale societies: 2. Bai Bureh	195
The unconquered heart	199
7 The Colonial Experience I
Patterns of colonial government	201
Central government	209
Social and economic change	216
Government and society	225
The colonial economy	232
8 The Colonial Experience II
Civil war in the mind	244
The spread of Islam	246
The spread of Christianity	250
Western education	255
Alien wars	258
A colonial balance sheet	263
9 Nationalism before 1939
Early forms of nationalism	266
English-speaking West Africa	268
French-speaking West Africa	273
10 Nationalism Triumphant
The forces of change	278
English-speaking West Africa	281
French-speaking West Africa	288
Guinea-Bissau	294
11 Independence Regained
Themes	300
The form of government	302
The anatomy of underdevelopment	308
International relations	319
The artist as critic of society	320

12 Case Studies

Nigeria	323
Ghana	331
Ivory Coast	336
Guinea	339
Mali	344

Epilogue: looking forward	347
----------------------------------	-----

Independent West Africa (Time Chart)	348
--------------------------------------	-----

Questions	351
------------------	-----

Reading Guide	356
----------------------	-----

Index	377
--------------	-----