INTRODUCTION	xv
1 What is the campaign finance problem?	1
What is the disagreement between supporters and opponents of reform?	1
How big a problem is quid pro quo corruption?	2
Whether the problem is political corruption or political inequality, campaign finance is about paying for election campaigns. How much do they cost?	3
Do elections cost a lot more now than they used to?	4
Is it true that the candidate with the most money always wins?	5
Where do candidates get the money to pay for their campaigns?	5
What is the role of political parties?	6
How has Congress regulated money in elections?	7
What is the state of the Federal Election Campaign Act today?	8
2 Watergate and Buckley v. Valeo	10
What was Watergate?	10
What was the campaign finance part of Watergate?	13
How did Congress change campaign finance law after Watergate?	15
Who were Buckley and Valeo?	16

Why did Senator Buckley and the other challengers think the 1974 reforms were unconstitutional?	17
How did the circuit court decide Buckley v. Valeo?	18
How did the Supreme Court decide Buckley v. Valeo?	19
How did the challengers, the defenders, and the justices deal with the reform goals of curbing campaign costs, preventing corruption, and promoting equality?	21
Why is Buckley v. Valeo still important today?	22

3 The rise and fall of public funding 25

How does the Presidential Election Campaign Fund work?	25
Did Congress come up with the idea of public funding in response to Watergate?	26
What did reformers hope to accomplish by using public funds to pay for elections?	27
Why was Senator Long's public funding bill so controversial?	28
If the income tax checkoff was so controversial in the 1960s, how did it survive the political battles in Congress?	29
What happened to the tax incentives for small contributions that Congress passed in 1971?	30
Why did the public funding program pay for the party conventions as well as the elections?	30
Why did Congress repeal public funding for party conventions?	32
How does the public funding program treat minor parties?	33
How does the public funding program treat independents?	33
Did public funding meet its goal of bringing in new, small donors?	35
Public funding is also supposed to bring in new candidates. Did the presidential program do that?	36
But participation in the tax checkoff had dropped by 2012. Did the same thing happen with public opinion?	37
What kinds of public funding programs are the states enacting?	38
Which states subsidize election campaigns?	39

Which cities have public funding programs?	41
How does New York City's public funding program work?	42
How well did the presidential public funding program work?	43
4 Disclosure and the Federal Election Commission	46
What does the FEC do?	47
Why did Congress create the Federal Election Commission?	48
How does the FEC work? Is it like other independent agencies?	49
How well does the current disclosure law work?	51
How does the FEC enforce other parts of the FECA?	54
Why are there so many partisan deadlocks on the FEC?	56
Why has disclosure become so controversial?	57
What are the intimidation charges raised by opponents of disclosure?	59
5 Political action committees	61
Why do we have PACs? Who created them and why?	61
Why did corporations suddenly begin forming PACs in the late 1970s?	63
Why did reformers try to curb PACs in the 1980s?	64
Did politicians begin refusing PAC contributions in the 1980s?	66
Were independent expenditures new?	67
What is a connected PAC?	68
How do the five categories of connected PACs differ from one another?	69
Do business and labor PACs do different things with their money in elections?	70
What are nonconnected PACs?	71
What do ideological PACs do?	71
What do leadership PACs do?	72

6 Super PACs	75
Where did the super PAC come from?	75
What makes super PACs super?	76
What is a hybrid PAC?	77
Why is coordination between candidates and super PACs a problem?	78
What did Congress do about independent expenditures after Watergate?	79
How did Citizens United and SpeechNow make coordination between candidates and super PACs such a big problem?	80
What are the rules against candidates coordinating with super PACs?	82
How close did candidates and super PACs get in 2012?	83
How did the super PAC change the way presidential candidates run their campaigns?	84
Stephen Colbert formed a super PAC on his Comedy Central TV show, The Colbert Report. What was that about?	85
Jeb Bush's super PAC did not help him at all. And Hillary Clinton's super PAC did not help her fend off Bernie Sanders. So how big a deal are super PACs, really?	87
7 Billionaires	89
There seem to be a lot of billionaire donors these days. Is this new?	89
What is different about megadonors today?	90
How did fundraising by presidential candidates in 2015 differ from that of previous elections?	91
Jeb Bush was the establishment candidate who raised the most money from billionaires, but his campaign never got off the ground. So were the billionaires really all that important?	93
Were billionaires any more important in the Democrats' race?	94
What is the Koch brothers' network?	95
What did the Koch network do in the 2012 and 2014 elections?	97
How are other conservative billionaires becoming active in elections?	98

Are liberal billionaires doing anything similar to what the Koch brothers are doing?	99
Are individual liberal billionaires building personal political operations, as rich conservatives are doing?	101
8 Outside money	103
What was soft money?	103
Did both parties raise soft money?	105
How did the nature of soft money change after 1992?	106
What was the McCain-Feingold Act?	108
What is a 527?	109
Did 527s just replace party soft money?	110
What are 501(c) tax-exempt groups?	112
What was Wisconsin Right to Life v. FEC?	113
Was there still a lot of outside money in the 2008 election?	114
How did the FEC weaken disclosure rules for tax-exempt groups?	114
What are 501(c)(4)s?	115
How did Citizens United change the role of 501(c)s in elections?	116
What was the controversy over the IRS's scrutiny of applications to form social welfare groups?	117
What did the American Bar Association recommend the IRS do about political activity by nonpolitical groups?	118
9 Corporations, Unions, and Citizens United	121
What can corporations do in elections now that they could not do before Citizens United?	121
Did Citizens United overturn the Tillman Act's ban on political contributions?	122
Did the Tillman Act work? Or did corporations keep making campaign contributions after it banned them?	123

When did corporations and unions begin using their money to influence elections?	124
How did conservatives try to limit labor participation in elections?	125
Why did the Department of Justice challenge the legality of labor PACs in Pipefitters v. United States?	126
What was the issue in First National Bank of Boston v. Bellotti?	127
Why did the Supreme Court give First Amendment rights of political speech to corporations in Citizens United?	129
How big a change did Citizens United make to the way campaigns are financed?	130
What about corporate personhood? Did Citizens United say corporations are people?	130
Did Citizens United release a flood of corporate money for independent expenditures?	131
Citizens United also permitted unlimited spending by labor unions. Has that happened?	132
Critics of Citizens United also said it would let foreign money into U.S. elections. Has that happened?	133
Is the Republican Party financed by business and the Democratic Party by labor?	134
What about corporate lobbying? Isn't that at least as big a problem as campaign finance?	135
10 Conclusion	137
Why does the future look bright for reform opponents?	137
Is there any chance for reviving public funding for presidential elections?	138
What about public funding for state and city elections? Is that likely to continue?	138
Will small-donor programs be able to counter the surge of rich donors and democratize campaign finance?	140
Well-financed non-party groups seem to be more active than the parties in recent elections. Are the parties getting weaker?	141
Can the FEC be made to work?	143

Will disclosure survive?	143
There seems to be a lot of support for a constitutional amendment to overturn Citizens United. Is that likely to happen?	144
Why are the prospects for reform so poor?	145
The chances of curbing big money in elections would be a lot better if the 5–4 split on the Supreme Court went the other way. How likely is that?	147
