

Contents

Acknowledgements	page xi
List of abbreviations	xii
Introduction	I
PART I LOGOCENTRISM	II
1 Karl Barth's two models for the nature of language	13
2 Sprachphilosophie from Hamann to Humboldt	35
3 Forms of logocentrism among Barth's contemporaries	53
4 Barth between Sprache and Rede philosophy	79
PART II DIALOGUES WITH DIFFERENCE	105
5 Heidegger's dialogue with difference	109
6 Buber's dialogue with difference	126
7 Barth's theology of the Word and Levinas's philosophy of Saying	147
PART III DIFFÉRANCE	171
8 Derrida as Levinas's supplement	177
9 Barth and Levinas: their difference as différance	200

10	Derrida's supplement	209
11	Barth and the economy of différance	235
12	Conclusion: Comment ne pas parler	252
	Index	257