

The Art of the Northern Renaissance

Craig Harbison

Laurence King Publishing

Contents

INTRODUCTION The Self-Conscious Pragmatic Artist 7

Church and State 8 Artist and Patron 11
Individualism and Self-Awareness 17 Hallmarks of the Northern Renaissance 21

ONE Realism 25

Fact, Symbol, and Ideal 26 Manuscript Illumination 27
Style, Technique, and Scale in Panel Painting 31
Space, Perspective, and Architecture 34 Fragmentary Realism 38
Sculpture 42 Realism and Social Class 47
The Vocabulary of Bourgeois Realism 50 The Portinari Triptych 53
Sixteenth-Century Developments 60

TWO Physical Production and Original Location 63

The Power of the Guilds 64 Commissions and Contracts 66
The Open Market 68 The Production of a Panel Painting 70
Printmaking 75 Function and Content 76
The Isenheim Altarpiece 86

THREE Religious Behaviour and Ideals 91

Controversy and Corruption 92 Personal Religion 94
The Pilgrimage 98 Stereotypes and Originals 101
The Sixteenth-Century Reformation 105 Propaganda through Art 113
The Transformation of Religious Imagery 118

FOUR Artistic Specialities and Social Developments 123

Portrait Imagery 124 Landscape Imagery 134
Still-life and Genre Imagery 144 Dogma into Dialogue 152

CONCLUSION Italy and the North 155

Northern Artists' Travels to Italy 156 The Revival of Ancient Art and Subject Matter 161
The Naked Body 165

TIMELINE 168

BIBLIOGRAPHY 170

PICTURE CREDITS 173

INDEX 174