

CONTENTS

Contributors xxiii

PART ONE Introduction

1. Psychological Literacy and the Psychologically Literate Citizen:
New Frontiers for a Global Discipline 3
Jacquelyn Cranney and Dana S. Dunn

PART TWO Curriculum Perspectives

2. Curriculum Matters: Structure, Content, and Psychological Literacy 15
Dana S. Dunn, Robin L. Cautin, and Regan A. R. Gurung
3. Critical Thinking and the Education of Psychologically Literate Citizens 27
Diane F. Halpern and Heather A. Butler
4. Enhancing Ethical Literacy of Psychologically Literate Citizens 41
Graham R. Davidson and Shirley A. Morrissey
5. The Social Psychology of Intergroup Harmony and the Education of Psychologically Literate Citizens 56
Fiona A. White
6. Changing the Lens: Indigenous Perspectives on Psychological Literacy 72
Pat Dudgeon, Dawn Darlaston-Jones, and Yvonne Clark
7. Introductory Psychology and Psychological Literacy 91
Lorelle J. Burton and Kathie J. McDonald
8. Educational Psychology and Psychological Literacy in Higher Education:
Developmental and Cultural Aspects of Racial Diversity 104
Nida Denson and Marsha Ing
9. The Role of Positive Psychology in Creating the Psychologically Literate Citizen 119
Suzy Green, Paula L. Robinson, and Lindsay G. Oades

10. Departmental Program Approaches for Educating Psychologically Literate Citizens 131
Jane S. Halonen, Dana S. Dunn, Suzanne Baker, and Maureen A. McCarthy
11. Psychological Literacy and Applied Psychology in Undergraduate Education 146
Jacquelyn Cranney, Sue Morris, Frances H. Martin, Steve Provost, Lucy Zinkiewicz, John Reece, Josephine Milne-Home, Lorelle J. Burton, Fiona A. White, Judi Homewood, Joanne K. Earl, and Sherri McCarthy

PART THREE Global Perspectives

12. Psychological Literacy: An Italian Perspective 167
Remo Job, Lorella Lotto, and Claudio Tonzar
13. An Indonesian Perspective on Psychological Literacy 178
Sarlito Wirawan Sarwono
14. A U.K. Perspective on Psychological Literacy and Citizenship 191
Annie Trapp and Jacqueline Akhurst
15. Psychological Literacy Goals in Psychology Teaching in Russian Education 206
Victor Karandashev
16. Sustainability and the Psychologically Literate Citizen: A New Zealand Perspective 220
Niki Harré, Taciano L. Milfont, William Helton, and Andrea Mead
17. Fostering Psychologically Literate Citizens: A Canadian Perspective 234
Steve Charlton and Jocelyn Lymburner

PART FOUR Integrative Perspectives

18. Adaptive Cognition and Psychological Literacy 251
Jacquelyn Cranney and Sue Morris
19. Psychological Literacy: Bridging Citizenship and Character 269
Bryan W. Sokol and Janet E. Kuebli
20. A Scientist-Educator Perspective on Psychological Literacy 281
Daniel Bernstein

21. Virtues and Character Strengths of Psychologically Literate Faculty 296
Thomas V. McGovern
 22. Psychological Literacy: An Alumni Perspective 306
Harold Takooshian and Giulia Landi
 23. What the World Needs Now Is Psychological Literacy 322
Jacquelyn Cranney and Dana S. Dunn
- Index 337