

THINKING ABOUT LOVE

Essays in Contemporary Continental Philosophy

EDITED BY DIANE ENNS AND ANTONIO CALCAGNO

The Pennsylvania State University Press • University Park, Pennsylvania

Contents

Acknowledgments

vii

Thinking About Love:
An Introduction

Diane Enns and Antonio Calcagno

1

PART I

Human Vulnerability and the Limits of Love

1 Love and Death

Todd May

17

2 Love's Limit

Diane Enns

31

3 The Subject in Crisis: Kristeva
on Love, Faith, and Nihilism

John Caruana

46

PART II

Love, Desire, and the Divine

4 The Phenomenon of Kenotic
Love in Continental Philosophy of Religion

Christina M. Gschwandtner

63

5 Love's Conditions: Passion and the Practice of Philosophy

Felix Ó Murchadha

81

6 What Can Love Say?

Lyotard on Caritas and Eros

Mélanie Walton

98

7 Finding a Place for Desire in the Life of the Mind: Arendt and Augustine

Antonio Calcagno

114

PART III
Love and Politics
8	Against Essentialist Conceptions of Love: Toward a Social-Material Theory Christian Lotz	131
9	Hannah Arendt and Simone Weil on the Significance of Love for Politics Sophie Bourgault	149
PART IV
The Phenomenological Experience of Love
10	Trust and the Experience of Love Fiona Utley	169
11	The Time of Possible and Impossible Reciprocity: Love and Hate in Simone de Beauvoir Marguerite La Caze	186
12	Intentionality and the Neuroscience of Love Dorothea Olkowski	201
PART V
Love Stories
13	Love Is Blind: Jacques Derrida Dawne McCance	221
14	The Babies in Trees Alphonso Lingis	235
	List of Contributors	247
	Index	251