

The Development of Japanese Business

1600–1980

Johannes Hirschmeier, s.v.d.
and Tsunehiko Yui

Second edition

London
GEORGE ALLEN & UNWIN
Boston                      Sydney

Contents

Foreword	page	9
1	THE MERCHANTS OF TOKUGAWA JAPAN, 1600–1867	11
1.1	Socio-economic conditions	11
1.2	Types of merchants	25
1.3	Business organisation and practices	36
1.4	Values of the Tokugawa merchants	43
1.5	Two representative merchant houses	57
1.6	Notes	66
2	THE MEIJI ENTREPRENEURS, 1868–95	70
2.1	Socio-economic conditions	70
2.2	Meiji entrepreneurs and their enterprises	91
2.3	Organisation and management	111
2.4	Values of the Meiji entrepreneurs	120
2.5	Formation of the top two zaibatsu	132
2.6	Notes	142
3	COLLEGE GRADUATES AS BUSINESS LEADERS, 1896–1945
	Part I: 1896–1936	145
3.1	Socio-economic conditions	145
3.2	Salaried top executives as second generation entrepreneurs	166
3.3	Organisation and management	182
3.4	Impact of values on management	212
3.5	Organisation and growth of Mitsui and Mitsubishi zaibatsu	223
	Part II: The War Period 1937–1945	236
3.6	Three critical weaknesses of the war economy	237
3.7	Business leaders	245
3.8	Business organisations and central controls	248

8	THE DEVELOPMENT OF JAPANESE BUSINESS
3.9	Middle and lower management structure	page 252
3.10	Management of labour	255
3.11	Expansion and crisis of the zaibatsu	257
3.12	Notes	260
4	THE ORGANISERS OF JAPAN'S ECONOMIC MIRACLE	264
4.1	Socio-economic conditions	264
4.2	Postwar executives and their achievements	313
4.3	Organisation and management	325
4.4	On being a Japanese: continuity and change in values	364
4.5	Notes	376
	Glossary of Japanese Terms	379
	Index	384