

Japan's Foreign Policy in the Twenty-First Century

Continuity and Change

Edited by
Lam Peng Er and Purnendra Jain

LEXINGTON BOOKS

Lanham • Boulder • New York • London

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: More Changes; More Continuity Lam Peng Er and Purnendra Jain	xi
Part I: “Three Pillars” of Japanese Foreign Policy: Member of the West, an Asian Country, and UN-Centrism	1
1 The Japan-US Alliance in the Twenty-First Century: Indispensability of US Extended Deterrence Satoh Yukio	3
2 Japan and Western Europe: From Postwar Acrimonious Conflict to Comprehensive Collaboration Bert Edström	19
3 Tokyo’s Quest for a United Nations Security Council Permanent Seat Lam Peng Er	37
4 Japanese Foreign Policy as an “Asian” Country Inoguchi Takashi	55
Part II: Domestic Sources of Japanese Foreign Policy	73
5 Kantei Diplomacy under the Abe Administration Aurelia George Mulgan	75

6	Much Ado about a Constitution Satoh Haruko	95
7	“Opposition” in Power and their Foreign Policies 2009–2012: Legacy of DPJ through Policy Comparison Kiba Saya	117
Part III: Japanese Diplomacy Old and New: Policy		137
8	Tokyo’s Defense and Security Policy: Continuity and Change Katahara Eiichi	139
9	Addressing Territorial Disputes with Neighboring Countries: Continuity and Change from a Japanese Perspective Togo Kazuhiko	157
10	Japan’s Foreign Aid: Continuity and Change Purnendra Jain	177
11	Japan’s Human Security and Peacebuilding in the Twenty-First Century Iwami Tadashi	199
12	Japan and the Governance of Global Fisheries Ohta Hiroshi and Sanada Yasuhiro	219
Part IV: Japanese Diplomacy Old and New: Regional Engagement		245
13	Japan’s Quest for an Autonomous role in East Asian Regionalism: Strengthening its US Alliance and Balancing China’s Rise Oba Mie	247
14	From Cautiously Reactive to Eagerly Proactive: Japan’s Policy toward Southeast Asia Pavin Chachavalpongpun	265
15	Japan–India Relations: Bilateral, Regional, and Global Contexts Purnendra Jain	285
16	Japan’s Value-Oriented and Resource Diplomacy in Central Asia: Before and After Belt and Road Nikolay Murashkin	307
17	Japan’s Africa Engagement Brittany Morreale	331
Index		353
About the Contributors		371