

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION IN PRACTICE

SIMON MORRIS
Partner
CMS London

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xv
Table of Legislation	xxix
Abbreviations	li
Author's Introduction	lv
1. Background, EU and Global Influences
I. Introduction	1.01
II. Self-regulation under the FSA 1986	1.02
A. The Gower Report	1.03
B. The self-regulating organisations	1.06
C. The rulebooks	1.07
D. The operation of the self-regulating regime	1.08
III. The Creation of the Financial Services Authority	1.12
A. The policy for a unitary regulator	1.12
B. The operation of the FSA	1.20
IV. The Impact of the Financial Crisis 2007–2009	1.31
A. The causes	1.32
B. The evolution of the financial crisis	1.39
C. The conduct of the regulator	1.48
D. The regulator's response to the crisis	1.55
E. The Government's response to the crisis	1.58
F. Government proposals for reform	1.70
V. The Creation of the New UK Regulators	1.73
VI. The Europeanisation of Regulation	1.77
A. The development of the single European market	1.78
B. The European System of Financial Supervision (ESFS)	1.81
C. The EU Banking Union	1.85
D. The principal EU financial services legislation	1.91
E. The impact of EU regulation on the UK	1.95
VII. The Globalisation of Regulation	1.98
A. Bank capital	1.100
B. Strengthening risk management	1.101
C. Regulating remuneration	1.102
D. Ending 'too-big-to-fail'	1.103
E. Improving the capacity to resolve systemic institutions	1.104
F. Systemically important non-bank non-insurance firms	1.105
G. Improving the intensity and effectiveness of SIFI supervision	1.106
H. Strengthening regulation of the shadow banking system	1.107

2. The General Prohibition and the Specified Investments
I. Introduction	2.01
II. The General Prohibition	2.03
A. A person carries on without being authorised or exempt	2.04
B. A regulated activity	2.08
C. By way of business	2.11
D. Carrying on the regulated activity in the UK	2.18
III. Offences under the General Prohibition	2.27
IV. Enforceability of Agreements	2.29
A. Unauthorised persons	2.29
B. Authorised persons' credit agreements	2.30
C. Unauthorised intermediaries	2.31
D. Compensation for unenforceable agreements	2.32
V. The Specified Investments	2.36
A. Interpretation of the RAO	2.36
VI. Specified Investments	2.39
A. A deposit (Article 74)	2.41
B. Electronic money (Article 74A)	2.42
C. Rights under a contract of insurance (Article 75)	2.43
D. Shares (Article 76)	2.44
E. Instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness (Article 77)	2.46
F. Theologically compliant bonds (Article 77A)	2.49
G. Government and public securities (Article 78)	2.50
H. Instruments giving entitlements to investments (Article 79)	2.51
I. Certificates representing securities (Article 80)	2.53
J. Units in a collective investment scheme (Article 81)	2.55
K. Rights under a pension scheme (Article 82)	2.56
L. Greenhouse gas emissions (Article 82A)	2.57
M. Options (Article 83)	2.58
N. Futures (Article 84)	2.61
O. Contracts for differences (Article 85)	2.75
P. Lloyd's (Article 86)	2.78
Q. Funeral plan contracts (Article 87)	2.79
R. Consumer finance contracts (Articles 88 to 88E)	2.80
S. Credit information and references (Articles 89A and 89B)	2.81
VII. Collective Investment Schemes	2.84
A. Introduction	2.84
B. Types of CIS	2.88
C. Elements of a CIS	2.92
D. Arrangements that are not a CIS	2.104
E. Restriction on promoting a CIS	2.105
F. Permitted promotion of an unregulated CIS	2.106
3. Specified Activities and Exclusions
I. Introduction	3.01
II. Disapplication of Exclusions	3.04

III.	The Specified Activities	3.05
	A. Agreeing to carry on a specified activity (Article 64)	3.06
	B. Activities relating to banking and finance	3.08
	C. Activities relating to insurance	3.15
	D. Activities relating to securities	3.28
	E. Activities relating to home finance	3.66
	F. Activities relating to consumer lending	3.73
	G. Activities in relation to debt (Articles 39D to 39G)	3.80
	H. Activities relating to funds	3.83
	I. Miscellaneous activities	3.85
IV.	Generally Available Exclusions	3.89
	A. Trustees, nominees and personal representatives (Article 66)	3.90
	B. Activities carried on in the course of a profession or non-investment business (Article 67)	3.94
	C. Activities carried on in connection with the sale of goods or supply of services (Article 68)	3.95
	D. Groups and joint enterprises (Article 69)	3.98
	E. Sale of a body corporate (Article 70)	3.99
	F. Employee share schemes (Article 71)	3.101
	G. Information society services (Article 72A)	3.102
	H. UCITS and AIF managers (Article 72AA)	3.103
	I. Business angel-led enterprise capital funds (BAL fund) (Article 72E)	3.104
	J. Local authorities (Article 72G)	3.106
	K. Insolvency practitioners (Article 72H)	3.107
	L. Registered consumer buy-to-let mortgage firm (Article 72I)	3.108
4. The Constitution and Powers of the UK Regulators
I.	Introduction	4.01
II.	The Bank of England and the Financial Policy Committee	4.04
	A. The Bank of England	4.04
	B. The purpose and operation of the FPC	4.09
	C. The statutory framework for the FPC	4.13
III.	The Prudential Regulation Authority	4.23
	A. The policies of the PRA	4.23
	B. The statutory framework for the PRA	4.29
	C. The constitution of the PRA	4.35
	D. Persons regulated by the PRA	4.37
IV.	The Financial Conduct Authority	4.38
	A. The FCA's policies	4.38
	B. The statutory framework for the FCA	4.46
	C. The constitution of the FCA	4.58
	D. The accountability of the FCA	4.60
V.	Provisions Relating to both the PRA and the FCA	4.64
	A. The regulatory principles	4.64
	B. Principles of good governance	4.66
	C. Coordination of functions	4.67
	D. Consolidated supervision	4.73

E. Independent enquiry into serious regulatory failures	4.74
F. Regulatory investigation into possible failure	4.75
G. Treasury review	4.87
H. Investigation of complaints against regulators	4.88
I. International obligations	4.89
J. Further provisions	4.90
VI. Payment Systems Regulator	4.93
VII. Parliamentary Control over Financial Services Legislation	4.97
A. Statutory instruments	4.98
B. Regulations	4.98
5. Authorisation
I. Introduction	5.01
A. The register of authorised and other persons	5.03
B. Persons connected with an applicant	5.04
C. Protection of persons' interests	5.06
D. Payment of fees	5.07
II. Obtaining Authorisation	5.08
A. Authorised persons	5.08
B. Application for Part 4A permission	5.09
C. The process of applying for Part 4A permission	5.13
D. Exceeding permission	5.21
III. The Threshold Conditions	5.22
A. Threshold conditions for persons who are not PRA-authorised	5.23
B. FCA threshold conditions for PRA-authorised persons	5.34
C. PRA threshold conditions for an insurer	5.39
D. PRA threshold conditions for a non-insurer	5.45
IV. Exercise of Passport Rights by EEA Firms and by UK Firms	5.51
A. Inward passporting by EU firms	5.53
B. Qualifying for authorisation	5.57
C. The establishment conditions	5.63
D. The service conditions	5.67
E. Authorisation of Treaty firms	5.69
F. Exercise of passport rights by UK firms	5.71
V. Exemption from the Requirement to be Authorised	5.88
A. Exempted persons	5.89
B. Appointed representatives	5.90
C. Non-UK tied agents	5.101
D. Recognised investment exchanges and clearing houses	5.103
E. The professions	5.106
VI. Variation of Permission, Cancellation of Permission, and Imposition of Requirements	5.108
A. Variation of permission on a firm's initiative	5.112
B. Variation or cancellation of permission on the regulator's initiative	5.119
C. Cancellation of permission	5.125
D. Imposition of requirements	5.130
E. Exercising an own-initiative power in support of an overseas regulator	5.142

6. The Approval and Regulation of Individuals
I. Introduction	6.01
II. The Requirement for Approval	6.07
A. The designation of controlled functions	6.12
III. Applying for Approval	6.43
A. Fit and proper	6.46
B. Granting, refusing, and varying an approval	6.59
IV. Withdrawing Approval	6.66
V. Penalty for Performing a Controlled Function Without Approval	6.70
VI. Prohibiting an Individual	6.73
VII. Discipline	6.83
VIII. Rules of Conduct	6.95
A. Introduction	6.95
B. Statements of Principle and Code of Practice for Approved Persons	6.96
IX. Private Right of Action	6.138
X. The New Regime for Banks	6.138
A. Senior management	6.140
B. The duties of non-executive directors	6.178
C. Certification of employees in ‘significant-harm’ functions	6.185
D. The conduct rules—COCON	6.198
E. References	6.207
XI. Criminal Offence of Causing a Financial Institution to Fail	6.212
 7. Rules and Principles
I. Introduction	7.01
II. The Regulators’ Powers to Make Rules	7.02
A. The basic powers	7.02
B. General provisions relating to rules and guidance	7.07
III. The Structure of the Rulebooks	7.11
IV. Correspondence with EU Legislation	7.14
V. Interpreting a Rule	7.16
VI. The Effect of a Rule	7.22
A. Contravention of a rule	7.22
B. Other aspects of the rules	7.32
VII. Waiving or Modifying a Rule	7.33
VIII. Issuing Guidance on a Rule	7.38
IX. FCA Principles for Business and PRA Fundamental Rules	7.40
 8. Prudential Regulation
I. Introduction	8.01
II. The Regulators’ Prudential Policy	8.02

III.	Culture, Integrity and Cooperation with the Regulator	8.05
	A. Culture	8.05
	B. Integrity—Principle and Fundamental Rule 1	8.12
	C. Cooperation with the regulator—Principle 11 and Fundamental Rule 8	8.13
IV.	Systems and Controls—Principles 2 and 3 and Fundamental Rules 2 to 5	8.14
	A. The requirement	8.14
	B. The systems and controls rules	8.15
	C. Regulatory action for breach of competence and systems and controls	8.17
V.	Governance and Risk Management	8.20
	A. The elements of governance	8.21
	B. Regulatory action for weak governance	8.35
VI.	Capital	8.36
	A. Principle and Fundamental Rule 4	8.37
	B. Investment firms prudentially regulated by the FCA	8.38
	C. Insurers	8.39
	D. BIPRU firms	8.40
	E. Retail intermediaries	8.41
	F. PRA rules	8.42
VII.	Recovery and Resolution	8.46
VIII.	Ring Fencing	8.50
	A. Introduction	8.50
	B. Prohibition of certain activities	8.53
	C. Group restructuring powers	8.57
	D. Further powers	8.64
9. Conduct Regulation
I.	Introduction	9.01
II.	The FCA's Conduct Policy	9.02
III.	The FCA's Conduct Rules	9.05
	A. Banking Conduct of Business Sourcebook (BCOBS)	9.06
	B. Conduct of Business Sourcebook (COBS)	9.07
	C. Insurance Conduct of Business Sourcebook (ICOBS)	9.27
	D. Mortgages and Home Finance Conduct of Business Sourcebook (MCOB)	9.28
	E. Consumer Credit (CONC)	9.30
IV.	Client Assets—CASS and PRIN 10	9.32
	A. Principle 10 and action for breach	9.32
	B. The Client Assets Sourcebook	9.33
V.	Market Conduct—PRIN 5	9.35
VI.	Product Governance	9.36
VII.	Product Regulation and Intervention	9.37

VIII. Competition	9.44
A. The FCA competition policy	9.44
B. Competition and Markets Authority	9.50
C. Additional competition powers	9.52
10. Financial Promotions—Regulating Marketing Material
I. Introduction	10.01
II. The Elements of a Financial Promotion	10.05
A. What does ‘communicate’ mean?	10.07
B. What is an invitation or an inducement?	10.10
C. What is in the course of business?	10.12
D. What is engaging in investment activity?	10.13
E. What is the territorial scope?	10.20
F. What are the exemptions?	10.21
III. Contravention of the Restriction on Financial Promotions	10.22
A. Criminal offence	10.22
B. Unenforceability	10.24
IV. Exclusions from the Restriction on Financial Promotions	10.28
A. Introduction	10.28
B. Exemptions for all controlled activities	10.36
C. Exemptions for accepting deposits and entering into or effecting non-qualifying contracts of insurance	10.37
D. Exemptions for all controlled activities other than accepting deposits and for entering into or effecting qualifying contracts of insurance	10.37
V. The FCA’s Rules and Policy on Financial Promotions	10.39
A. Clear, fair, and not misleading	10.39
B. The retail client’s information needs	10.47
C. Direct offers	10.51
D. Non-written financial promotions and cold calls	10.52
E. Further requirements applicable to specific situations	10.54
F. Systems and controls	10.55
G. The FCA’s power to make financial promotion intervention rules	10.56
11. Supervision and Other Powers
I. Introduction	11.01
II. Supervision	11.02
A. Introduction	11.02
B. Exercising supervisory powers	11.10
C. FCA supervision	11.12
D. PRA supervision	11.17
III. Change in Control	11.24
A. Introduction	11.24
B. The process—acquiring or increasing control	11.26
C. The process—reducing or ceasing to have control	11.35
D. Acquiring, increasing and ceasing control, and partial exemptions	11.36
E. Criteria for approval of acquisition or increase in control	11.41
F. Approval or objection	11.42

G. Offences	11.49
H. The obligation on the firm subject to the change in control	11.50
IV. Powers Over Parent Undertakings	11.51
V. Short Selling	11.62
VI. Lloyd's	11.69
VII. Auditors and Actuaries	11.73
VIII. Insolvency	11.85
A. Regulators' powers to commence insolvency proceedings	11.86
B. The regulator's participation in insolvency proceedings	11.98
C. The Special Resolution Regime	11.103
12. Enforcement
I. Introduction	12.01
II. Powers to Gather Information	12.05
A. Firms' provision of information	12.06
B. Statutory powers of information gathering and of investigation	12.12
C. Reports by skilled persons	12.21
D. Appointment of investigators	12.28
E. The process of investigation	12.47
F. Cooperation between the PRA and the FCA	12.53
G. Disclosure of information	12.54
III. How the FCA and PRA take Formal Decisions	12.62
A. Introduction	12.62
B. How the FCA takes decisions	12.64
C. How the PRA takes decisions	12.67
D. Consultation between regulators before taking enforcement action	12.69
IV. Disciplinary Action	12.71
A. The statutory framework for disciplinary action	12.72
B. The PRA's policy on disciplinary action	12.74
C. The FCA's policy on disciplinary action	12.75
D. The stages of a disciplinary case	12.82
E. Issuing a Warning Notice	12.83
F. Making representations in response to a Warning Notice	12.94
G. Decision Notices	12.96
H. Notices of discontinuance	12.101
I. Final Notices	12.103
J. Procedural matters	12.109
K. Penalties	12.119
V. The Tribunal	12.130
A. Introduction	12.130
B. Jurisdiction	12.133
C. Procedure	12.136
D. The work of the Tribunal	12.139

VI.	Injunctions	12.146
A.	Statutory powers	12.146
B.	The FCA's policy and procedure	12.149
VII.	Offences	12.150
A.	Institution of proceedings	12.150
B.	Misleading the regulator	12.152
C.	Bodies corporate and partnerships	12.153
D.	Making misleading statements	12.154
E.	Creating a false or misleading impression	12.155
F.	Benchmarks—misleading statements	12.156
13. Financial Crime
I.	Introduction	13.01
II.	Market Abuse	13.03
A.	The elements of market abuse	13.04
B.	Offence and defences	13.07
C.	Dealing on inside information	13.17
D.	Disclosing inside information	13.22
E.	Manipulating transactions	13.25
F.	Manipulative devices	13.32
G.	Disseminating misleading information	13.33
H.	Residual UK market abuse—insider dealing and misleading impressions falling outside MAD	13.36
I.	Injunctions and restitution for market abuse	13.41
J.	The FCA's approach to market abuse	13.43
K.	Reform of market abuse	13.50
III.	Money Laundering	13.55
A.	The money laundering offences	13.55
B.	The Money Laundering Regulations	13.64
C.	The FCA's AML policy	13.70
D.	The FCA's requirements	13.72
E.	FCA enforcement action	13.73
IV.	Fraud and Other Financial Crime	13.75
A.	Fundamental requirements	13.76
B.	Customer and staff fraud	13.77
C.	Data security	13.81
D.	Bribery and corruption	13.84
E.	Sanctions and terrorist finance	13.94
F.	Benchmark and foreign exchange manipulation	13.99
14. Redress
I.	Firms' Complaint Handling	14.02
A.	Introduction	14.02
B.	The FCA's complaint handling rules	14.03
C.	Firms' complaints handling	14.04
D.	Managing complaints handling	14.06
E.	Assessing individual complaints	14.11

II.	The Financial Ombudsman Scheme	14.20
	A. Introduction	14.20
	B. Constitution of the FOS	14.21
	C. Bringing a complaint to the FOS	14.23
	D. The FOS' determination of complaints	14.35
III.	Super-complaints and References to the FCA	14.47
IV.	The Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS)	14.53
	A. The constitution of the FSCS	14.56
	B. The rules of the FSCS	14.66
	C. Operation of the FSCS	14.86
	D. Imminent developments	14.89
V.	Consumer Redress Schemes	14.93
VI.	Restitution Orders	14.99
	A. Court restitution order	14.100
	B. Regulatory restitution order	14.106
VII.	Further Circumstances where Investors may Obtain Redress	14.108
	A. Investors' remedial action for unauthorised investment business and financial promotions	14.109
	B. Investors' remedial action for breach of rules	14.110
	C. Firms' voluntary remedial action	14.111
	D. Disciplinary remedial action	14.112
	E. Ad hoc compensation schemes	14.113