

New Discourses in Medieval Canon Law Research

Challenging the Master Narrative

Edited by

Christof Rolker

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

List of Illustrations VII

Abbreviations VIII

Notes on Contributors XI

Introduction 1

Christof Rolker and Andreas Thier

1 Fournier's Model and Its Merits 4

Christof Rolker

2 Law and Reform: The Transmission of Burchard of Worms' Liber decretorum 33

Kathleen G. Cushing

3 New Narratives for the Gregorian Reform 44

Greta Austin

4 Clerical Networks and Canon Law: The Beauvais Election Controversy of 1100–04 58

John S. Ott

5 The Role of Hagiography in the Development of Canon Law in the Reform Era 83

Tatsushi Genka

6 Of Scholasticism and Canon Law: Narratives Old and New 105

John C. Wei

7 The Decretum of Gratian: A Janus-Faced Collection 127

Stephan Dusil

8 Using the 'Old Law' in Twelfth-Century Decretal Collections 145

Danica Summerlin

Canon Law before Gratian: A Bibliographical Appendix	171
Christof Rolker
General Index	204
Index of Canonical Collections and Decretal Collections	210
Index of Manuscripts	213