

Israel and Zion in American Judaism: The Zionist Fulfillment

edited with introduction by Jacob Neusner

Garland Publishing, Inc.
New York and London 1993

Contents

Volume Introduction	vii
Zionism and Judaism
Yehudi Adam	1
Seeking Ease in Exile
Edward Alexander	9
Where is Zion?
Edward Alexander	13
Liberalism and Zionism
Edward Alexander	18
Zionism as Americanism
Jerold S. Auerbach	25
American Jews and Israel: Two Views II
Judah M. Eisenberg	30
An Agenda for Conservative Judaism in Israel
Hertzel Fishman	36
American Jews and Israel: Two Views I
Roland B. Gittelsohn	40
A Strategy for Non-Orthodox Judaism in Israel
Alfred Gottschalk	45
Judaism and the Land of Israel
Arthur Hertzberg	49
Israeli Imperatives and Jewish Agonies
Irving Louis Horowitz and Maurice Zeitlin	61

Zionism the Ideal and an Idea of Religion Berel B. Lang	85
Judaism and the Zionist Problem Jacob Neusner	93
A Stranger at Home: An American Jew Visits in Israel Jacob Neusner	107
Zionism and "The Jewish Problem" Jacob Neusner	112
Diaspora Judaism—An Abnormality? The Testimony of History Jakob J. Petuchowski	125
Zionist Polemics in a Post-Zionist Age Jakob J. Petuchowski	138
The Tasks of Israel and Galut David Polish	147
Israel: The Ever-Dying People Simon Rawidowicz	161
Can There be a Revival of Zionist Ideology? Nathan Rotenstreich	173
Israel and American Youth Ronald Sanders	177
Israel, Galut and Zionism: The Changed Scene Efraim Shmueli	184
Whither Diaspora Judaism? Phillip Sigal	197
Reform and Conservative Judaism in Israel: Aims and Platforms Ephraim Tabory	208
Acknowledgements	219