

Representing from Life in Seventeenth-century Italy

Sheila McTighe

Amsterdam University Press

Table of Contents

Introduction: Depicting from Life	15
1. Caravaggio's Physiognomy	41
2. Jacques Callot, Drawing Dal Vivo around 1620: Commerce in Florence, Piracy on the High Seas	91
3. Jacques Callot's Capricci di varie figure (1617): The Allusive Imagery of the Everyday, Represented 'from Life' and Emulating a Text	145
4. The Motif of the Shooting Man, and Capturing the Urban Scene: Claude Lorrain and the Bamboccianti	179
5. The Absent Eyewitness: the Revolt of Masaniello and Depiction Dal Vivo in the Middle of the Seventeenth Century	221
Conclusion	245
Index	249