

THE HOLOCAUST SHORT STORY

Mary Catherine Mueller

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction: the features of the Holocaust short story	1
1 The collapse of time: introduction to select themes of the Holocaust short story	13
2 The collapse of silence: the role of silence in Ida Fink's short stories	21
3 The collapse of man – and then man created the anti-man: the role of the Muselman figure in select short stories from Tadeusz Borowski's This Way for the Gas, Ladies and Gentlemen	43
4 The collapse of relationships and home: the Nazi assault on relationships, family, and home as portrayed in two Yiddish Holocaust short stories	66
5 The collapse of motherhood: Cynthia Ozick's short story "The Shawl"	89
Conclusion	109
Bibliography	112
Index	119