

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
Introduction: Surveying Global Food Historiography Peter Scholliers and Kyri W. Claflin	1

PART I: THE WEST

1 Food and Drink in the Ancient World John Wilkins	11
2 Food Histories of the Middle Ages Paul Freedman	24
3 Food among the Historians: Early Modern Europe Kyri W. Claflin	38
4 The Many Rooms in the House: Research on Past Foodways in Modern Europe Peter Scholliers	59
5 Sustenance, Abundance, and the Place of Food in U.S. Histories Amy Bentley	72
6 Five Hundred Years of Fusion: Histories of Food in the Iberian World Jeffrey M. Pilcher	87

PART II: THE MIDDLE EAST

7 Food Studies in Ottoman-Turkish Historiography Özge Samancı	107
8 “Bread from Heaven, Bread from the Earth”: Recent Trends in Jewish Food History Writing Jonathan Brumberg-Kraus	121

- 9 The Historiography of Arab Cuisine: Issues and Perspectives 140
Nawal Nasrallah

PART III: SOUTH AND EAST ASIA

- 10 New Directions of Research on Indian Food 165
Krishnendu Ray
- 11 The Shadow of Shinoda Osamu: Food Research in East Asia 181
Katarzyna Cwiertka and Yujen Chen

PART IV: AFRICA

- 12 Writing on the African Pot: Recipes and Cooking
as Historical Knowledge 199
James C. McCann
- Conclusion: Contours of Global Food Historiography 209
Peter Scholliers and Kyri W. Claflin
- Bibliography 217
- Index 285