

Contents

List of figures	x
List of tables	xi
List of contributors	xii
Acknowledgements	xv
1 ELF research methods and different approaches to data and analyses: introduction	1
KUMIKO MURATA
PART I
ELF research: some theoretical underpinnings and development	19
2 Research perspectives on ELF: linguistic usage and communicative use	21
HENRY WIDDOWSON
3 Researching ELF communication: focus on high-stakes encounters	29
BARBARA SEIDLHOFER
4 ELF and translanguaging: covert and overt resources in a transnational workplace	38
ALESSIA COGO
PART II
Spoken and written corpora in ELF research	55
5 Good texts in non-standard English: ELF and academic writing	57
ANNA MAURANEN

6 Exploring diachronic changes in research articles from an ELF perspective: a small corpus study	81
SAYAKO MASWANA
7 Tracing the emergence of situational multilingual practices in a BELF meeting: micro-diachronic analysis and implications of corpus design	97
MARIE-LUISE PITZL
8 Asian Corpus of English (ACE): features and applications	126
LIXUN WANG
9 Interpersonal formulaic sequences in ELF academic lectures: methodological challenges	143
YING WANG
PART III
Conversation analytic approaches to ELF interactions	159
10 Applying conversation analysis to ELF interaction data	161
JAGDISH KAUR
11 Analysing multilingual/lingua franca interactions using conversation analysis: notes on transcription and representability	179
KAISA S. PIETIKÄINEN
12 Accounting for asymmetries in ELF interactions: three disparate Asian settings	197
ALAN THOMPSON
PART IV
Narrative approaches in ELF research: exploring attitudes towards ELF	219
13 'Place-reflexivity' as an imaginary kaleidoscope to explore methodological issues in ELF research	221
MASUKO MIYAHARA

14	Understanding the ELF phenomenon through narrative inquiry: a diary study on identities of Japanese ELF users	241
	YOKO NOGAMI
15	Rigour in ELF language attitude research: an example of a conversational interview study	258
	TOMOKAZU ISHIKAWA
	Index	276