

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Foreword	xi
Introduction	xiii
I Teachers Today—Who Are They?	1
New Technologies Are Never Neutral
Popular Culture: What Is It?
Trump as the New Postmodernist
Media Violence: A Tenacious Virus
II Media in Contemporary Capitalism	8
The Manufacture of Consent
Economic Trends
Violent Underpinnings
III The LaMarsh Commission on Media Violence	21
Methods and Scope of the Inquiry
Research Analysis
Content
Formularization
Findings
The Interwoven Pattern
Industry and Policy
Conclusions
Legislation
Education and Public Awareness
The Role of Parents

IV	Mixed Responses	35
	The LaMarsh Centre
	Research on Pornography
	New Initiatives Elsewhere
	More Evidence of Harmful Effects
	Surveys and Polls
	Psychiatric Approaches
	Sociological and Other Approaches
	The Concept of Ideological Child Abuse
	Hegemony and the Mass Media
	Cultural Studies
	Media Literacy Courses in Schools
V	Pornography on the Rise	59
	Fraser Committee Ignores Research Findings
	Industry-Orchestrated Opposition to New Legislation
	The Debate Over Definitions
	New Legislation on Child Pornography
	Proliferation of the Problem
	Exploiting the Threat of Censorship for Profit
	Corporate Greed with Municipal Collusion
	Mixed Public Responses
VI	Defusing Public Protest	77
	A New Code on Violence
	The Canadian Broadcast Standards Council
	Industry Freedom without Regulation: Can It Work?
	Classification of Films, Videos, and TV Programming
	Generous Subsidies for Industry
	Municipal Responses

VII	Marginal Gains	92
	Industry Overhaul in Canada
	Calls to Update the CRTC's Mandate
	Legislation for the Protection of Children
	Advertising Directed to Children
	Landmark Court Precedents
	Legal Trends on Violence in American Popular Culture
	Converging Exploitation
VIII	New Insights into Old Habits	106
	Lessons Learned
	Responsible Regulation
	Community Dialogue with Industry: How Meaningful Is It?
	Re-examining Civil Liberties
	Progress Toward Harm-Based Definitions
	Full-Cost Accounting
	Our Fraying Social Fabric
	Forging Ahead
IX	What Next?	131
	Launching the Cultural Revolution
	Canadian Support
	Who Should Define Content?
	Public Broadcasting
	Better Education
	Some Alternatives
	Applied Research and Development
	Better Contributions from Non-Governmental Organizations
	Classification Boards and Criteria
	Governance for Public Education and Protection
	Regaining Control
	Postscript	156
	Bibliography	158
	Index	173