

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of contributors	ix
Introduction: impeccability and temptation	1
JOHANNES GRÖSSL
PART I
Was Christ sinless? Exegetical and historical approaches	13
1 The sinlessness of Christ and human perfection	15
JEFFREY SIKER
2 Sinless or not? The baptism by John and Jesus’ consciousness of his personal sins	33
ANGELIKA STROTMANN
3 “He himself was tempted” (Hebr 2:18): the temptation of Jesus in the New Testament	50
LENA LÜTTICKE AND HANS-ULRICH WEIDEMANN
4 God’s work and human’s contribution: Jesus’ sinlessness in Theodore of Mopsuestia’s Christology	75
CORNELIA DOCKTER
5 Conciliar Christology, impeccability, and temptation	94
TIMOTHY PAWL

PART II

Is Christ impeccable? Systematical approaches 117

- 6 Seven questions ingredient to Jesus Christ's temptation 119
JOHN E. MCKINLEY

- 7 The Hypostatic Union and the freedom of Christ 143
THOMAS SCHÄRTL

- 8 Classical Theism, Christology, and the Two Sons Worry 164
R.T. MULLINS

- 9 Peccable as Son of Man, impeccable as Son of God: an attempt to reconcile freedom and impeccability 183
DOMINIKUS KRASCHL

- 10 The divine and human will of Christ 199
OLIVER D. CRISP

- 11 Deification and the divided-consciousness-view 216
JOHANNES GRÖSSL

PART III

Human perfection and sinlessness in Islamic theology 233

- 12 The scope of iṣma and Qur'anic evidence 235
MOHAMMAD HAGHANI FAZL

- 13 Inerrancy and exaggeration in Shi'i theology 253
MUHAMMAD LEGENHAUSEN

- 14 The theological concept of imamate: how Imamis reconcile human perfection and free will 271
VAHID MAHDAVI MEHR

- Conclusion: impeccability and sinlessness in Islam and Christianity 286
KLAUS VON STOSCH

- Author/Subject index* 297

- Scripture index* 311