

Contents

- 7 Preface
- 8 1 Introduction: Gavin Butt, Kodwo Eshun, and Mark Fisher in Conversation
- 25 2 “Personality Crisis? Honey, I Was Born with One”: Lydia Lunch Interviewed by Dominic Johnson
- 57 3 Being in A Band: Art-school Experiment and the Post-Punk Commons – a Lecture by Gavin Butt
- 84 4 “On The One Hand The State Is Funding You and Enabling Your Existence, On The Other Hand, Your Whole Shtick Is To Rebel Against It”: Post-Punk and Poland, a Talk by Agata Pyzik
- 98 5 “Going Overground: The Jam between Populism and Popular Modernism”: A Lecture by Mark Fisher
- 121 6 Lockdown and Breakout: Laura Oldfield Ford and Gee Vaucher in Conversation with Mark Fisher
- 166 7 “The Weakest Link in Every Chain, I Always Want To Find It”: Green Gartside in Conversation with Kodwo Eshun
- 197 8 “40 Degrees in Black”: Eliete Mejorado and Bruno Verner in Conversation with Gavin Butt

- 227 9 “We Wanted This Sense of Fluxing In and Out of History”: Sue Clayton in Conversation with Kodwo Eshun
- 250 10 “Vague Post-Punk Memories”: A Lecture by Tom Vague, and Conversation with Mark Fisher
- 295 Contributors