
Contents

	Introduction	1
I	Philosophical and Sociological Innovations	5
	Neonaturalism
	Relational Social Realism
II	Toward a Science of Morality, 1885-1893	27
	Psychological Motivation
	Moral Obligation
	Moral Relationships in Diverse Societies
III	Toward a Science of Morality, 1897-1917	47
	Moral Theory in Suicide
	Final Refinements
	Society as the Source of Morality
IV	Moral Societies	75
	Moral Characteristics of Entire Societies
	Secondary Group Morality
	The Family
	Occupational and Professional Groups
	The State
V	Moral Education	120
	The Nature and Role of Education
	Character Formation
	Western Pedagogical Ideals
VI	Ethical Theory	151
	Rival Theories
	Early Ethical Theory, 1885-1893
	Mature Ethical Theory, 1893-1917

VII Retrospective Analysis	182
Bibliography	195
Index	217