

Contents

|  |           |   |           |
|--|-----------|---|-----------|
| Introduction: Building our 'critical muscle' .....     | viii      | 4 Is it an argument? .....                   | 45 |
| Do critical thinking skills matter? .....              | ix        | Introduction .....                                  | 45        |
| About this book .....                                  | x         | Argument and disagreement .....                     | 46        |
| Glossary .....   | xiv       | Activity: Argument and disagreement .....           | 47        |
| Acknowledgements .....                                 | xvi       | Non-arguments: Description .....                    | 48        |
| 1 What is critical thinking? .....              | 1  | Non-arguments: Explanations and summaries ...       | 49        |
| Introduction .....                                     | 1         | Activity: What type of message? .....               | 50        |
| What is critical thinking? .....                       | 2         | Distinguishing argument from other material ...     | 52        |
| Reasoning .....  | 3         | Activity: Selecting out the argument .....          | 53        |
| Why do critical thinking skills matter? .....          | 4         | Summary .....                                       | 55        |
| Underlying skills and attitudes .....                  | 5         | 5 How well do they say it? .....             | 57 |
| Self-awareness for accurate judgement .....            | 6         | Introduction .....                                  | 57        |
| Personal strategies for critical thinking .....        | 7         | How clear is the author's position? .....           | 58        |
| Critical thinking in academic contexts .....           | 8         | Internal consistency .....                          | 59        |
| Barriers to critical thinking .....                    | 10        | Activity: Internal consistency .....                | 60        |
| Critical thinking: Knowledge, skills and attitudes ... | 13        | Logical consistency .....                           | 61        |
| Priorities: Developing critical thinking abilities ... | 14        | Activity: Logical consistency .....                 | 62        |
| Summary .....  | 16        | Independent reasons and joint reasons .....         | 63        |
| 2 How well do you think? .....                  | 17 | Activity: Independent reasons and joint reasons ... | 64        |
| Introduction .....                                     | 17        | Intermediate conclusions .....                      | 65        |
| Assess your thinking skills .....                      | 18        | Intermediate conclusions used as reasons .....      | 66        |
| Scoring sheet .....                                    | 22        | Activity: Intermediate conclusions .....            | 67        |
| Focusing attention .....                               | 23        | Summative and logical conclusions .....             | 68        |
| Focusing attention: Identifying difference .....       | 24        | Activity: Summative and logical conclusions .....   | 69        |
| Focusing attention: Recognising sequence .....         | 25        | Logical order .....                                 | 70        |
| Categorising .....                                     | 27        | Activity: Logical order .....                       | 71        |
| Activity: Categorising text .....                      | 28        | Summary .....                                       | 72        |
| Close reading .....                                    | 29        | 6 Reading between the lines .....            | 73 |
| 3 What's their point? .....                     | 33 | Introduction .....                                  | 73        |
| Introduction .....                                     | 33        | Assumptions .....                                   | 74        |
| The author's position .....                            | 34        | Activity: Identify the underlying assumptions ...   | 75        |
| Activity: Capturing the author's position .....        | 35        | Identifying hidden assumptions .....                | 76        |
| Argument: Persuasion through reasons .....             | 36        | Implicit assumptions used as reasons .....          | 77        |
| Identifying the argument .....                         | 37        | Activity: Implicit assumptions used as reasons ...  | 78        |
| Activity: Identifying simple arguments .....           | 40        | False premises .....                                | 79        |
| Activity: Reasons and conclusions .....                | 41        | Activity: False premises .....                      | 80        |
| Hunting out the conclusion .....                       | 42        | Implicit arguments .....                            | 81        |
| Summary of features .....                              | 43        | Activities: Implicit arguments .....                | 82        |
| Summary .....  | 44        | Denoted and connoted meanings .....                 | 83        |
|  |           | Activities: Associations and stereotypes .....      | 85        |

|  |            |  |            |
|--|------------|--|------------|
| Activity: Denoted and connoted meanings.....       | 86         | The relation of theory to argument.....              | 132        |
| Summary.....                                       | 87         | Categorising and selecting.....                      | 133        |
| 7 Does it add up?.....                      | 89  | Accurate interpretation when reading.....            | 134        |
| Introduction.....                                  | 89         | Making notes to support critical reading.....        | 135        |
| Assuming a causal link.....                        | 90         | Reading and noting for a purpose.....                | 136        |
| Correlations and false correlations.....           | 91         | Concise critical notes: Analysing an argument..      | 137        |
| Activity: Identify the nature of the link.....     | 92         | Concise critical notes: Books.....                   | 138        |
| Not meeting the necessary conditions.....          | 93         | Activity: Critical selection – Notes A.....          | 141        |
| Not meeting sufficient conditions.....             | 94         | Activity: Critical selection – Notes B.....          | 142        |
| Activity: Necessary and sufficient conditions..... | 95         | Commentary on critical selection activity.....       | 143        |
| False analogies.....                               | 96         | Note your source of information.....                 | 144        |
| Activity: False analogies.....                     | 97         | Summary.....   | 146        |
| Deflection, complicity and exclusion.....          | 98         | 10 Critical, analytical writing.....          | 147 |
| Other types of flawed argument.....                | 99         | Introduction.....                                    | 147        |
| Unwarranted leaps and castle of cards.....         | 100        | Characteristics of critical, analytical writing..... | 148        |
| Emotive language; attacking the person.....        | 101        | Setting the scene for the reader.....                | 150        |
| More flaws.....                                    | 102        | Activity: Setting the scene for the reader.....      | 151        |
| Misrepresentation and trivialisation.....          | 103        | Writing up the literature search.....                | 152        |
| Tautology; two wrongs don't make a right.....      | 104        | Words used to introduce the line of reasoning..      | 153        |
| Summary.....                                       | 105        | Words used to reinforce the line of reasoning...     | 154        |
| 8 Where's the proof?.....                   | 107 | Signposting alternative points of view.....          | 155        |
| Introduction.....                                  | 107        | Words used to signpost conclusions.....              | 157        |
| Primary and secondary source materials.....        | 108        | Words and phrases used to structure the line         |            |
| Searching for evidence.....                        | 109        | of reasoning.....                                    | 158        |
| Literature searches.....                           | 110        | Drawing tentative conclusions.....                   | 159        |
| Reputable sources.....                             | 111        | Activity: Writing conclusions.....                   | 160        |
| Authenticity and validity.....                     | 112        | Critical analysis for essays: Essay titles.....      | 161        |
| Currency and reliability.....                      | 113        | Academic keywords used in titles.....                | 162        |
| Selecting the best evidence.....                   | 114        | Critical analysis for essays: Reading.....           | 163        |
| Relevant and irrelevant evidence.....              | 115        | Critical analytical essays: Introductions.....       | 164        |
| Activity: Relevant and irrelevant evidence.....    | 116        | Structured argument: The body of the essay....       | 165        |
| Representative samples.....                        | 117        | Essays: Bringing the argument together.....          | 166        |
| Activity: Representative samples.....              | 118        | Citing and referencing your sources.....             | 167        |
| Certainty and probability.....                     | 119        | What do I include in a reference?.....               | 168        |
| Sample sizes and statistical significance.....     | 120        | Summary.....   | 169        |
| Over-generalisation.....                           | 121        | 11 Where's the analysis?.....                 | 171 |
| Controlling for variables.....                     | 122        | Introduction.....                                    | 171        |
| Facts and opinions.....                            | 123        | Checklist for evaluating Essay 1.....                | 172        |
| Eye-witness testimony.....                         | 124        | Evaluate Essay 1.....                                | 173        |
| Triangulation.....                                 | 125        | Evaluation of Essay 1.....                           | 175        |
| Evaluating a body of evidence.....                 | 126        | Commentary for Essay 1.....                          | 176        |
| Summary.....                                       | 127        | Checklist for evaluating Essay 2.....                | 178        |
| 9 Critical reading and note-making.....     | 129 | Evaluate Essay 2.....                                | 179        |
| Introduction.....                                  | 129        | Evaluation of Essay 2.....                           | 181        |
| Preparing for critical reading.....                | 130        | Commentary on Essay 2.....                           | 182        |
| Identifying the theoretical perspective.....       | 131        | Evaluating your writing for critical thinking.....   | 184        |
|  |            | Summary.....   | 186        |

|  |            |   |            |
|--|------------|---|------------|
| 12 Critical reflection .....  | 187 | Applying critical thinking whenlooking for a job.....   | 217        |
| Introduction.....  | 187        | Critical consideration of the 'best fit'jobs for you.....                                       | 218        |
| What is critical reflection?.....  | 188        | Use the clues: Information provided byemployers.....  | 219        |
| Why engage in critical reflection?.....  | 190        | Where do job applicants go wrong?.....  | 220        |
| Decide your approach and purpose.....  | 191        | Where job applicants go wrong: Examples.....  | 222        |
| Approach: Outcome, focus, model, method.....                                   | 192        | Employer demand for critical thinking skills.....   | 223        |
| Approach: Method and audience.....   | 193        | How critical thinking skills are useful inwork roles.....                                       | 224        |
| Approach: Relating experience and theory.....                                  | 194        | Demonstrating critical thinking to employers.....   | 225        |
| Decide your approach: Summary.....   | 195        | Critical self-evaluation of job applications:Checklist.....                                     | 226        |
| Resource: Outline approach to reflection.....                                  | 196        | Summary.....  | 228        |
| Reflection phases 1 and 2.....   | 198        |   |            |
| Examples of phase 1 reflection.....  | 199        | Texts for Activities in Chapters8, 9 and 11 .....                                       | 229 |
| Examples of phase 2 reflection.....  | 200        |   |            |
| Models of reflection.....  | 201        | Practice activities on longer texts .....  | 235 |
| Deciding on your model for reflection.....                                     | 202        |   |            |
| The Core Model for critical reflection.....                                    | 203        | Appendix: Selected search enginesand databases for online literaturesearches ..... | 274 |
| Applying reflection to professional practice.....                              | 205        | Answers to activities.....  | 275        |
| Reflection and professional judgement.....                                     | 206        | Bibliography.....   | 303        |
| Good and bad critical reflection.....  | 207        | Index.....  | 307        |
| Presenting your reflection to others.....                                      | 209        |   |            |
| Summary.....   | 210        |   |            |
| 13 Critical thinking for your futurecareer and employability ..... | 211 |   |            |
| Thinking critically about your life andcareer planning.....                | 212        |   |            |
| Self-evaluation: Thinking criticallyabout your career path.....            | 214        |   |            |
| Thinking critically about your career:Taking action.....                   | 216        |   |            |