

Contents

1	Introduction: The Growth of Feminist Pragmatism: Opening Channels for Cooperative Intelligence	1
	Marilyn Fischer and Barbara J. Lowe
Part I Past: The Recovery of the Classics
2	On Writing Pragmatism and Feminism: Reweaving the Social Fabric (1996) and Its Reception	13
	Charlene Haddock Seigfried
3	Toward a Pragmatist and Feminist Theory of Oppression: Thoughts on Class, Gender, and Race	27
	Núria Sara Miras Boronat
4	On Sense, Meaning, and Responsibility. Victoria Welby's Significs	41
	Susan Petrilli
5	Feminist Pragmatist Salvaging of Victoria Welby's Theory of 'Ident'	55
	Zoe Hurley
6	Unconventional Legacy in American Psychology of Self: William James and Mary Whiton Calkins	67
	Michela Bella
7	Christine Ladd and the Form of Syllogisms	83
	Paloma Pérez-Ilzarbe
Part II Present: Contributions to Current Pragmatist Debates
8	Where Are Ethical Properties? Predication, Location, and Category Mistake	97
	Llanos Navarro

9	Reason, Truth, and Counterexample	111
	A. C. Spivey
10	Pragmatism and Scientific Perspectivism	123
	Sarah A. Wellan
11	From Individuality to Personhood in Dewey's Later Works	135
	Teresa Roversi
12	Foundations of Philosophy for Children, Reasonableness, and the Education of Thinking	147
	Dina Mendonça
13	The Educational Value of "Mental Non-resistance" and "Understanding" in Fostering Intellectual and Social Life. A Lesson from Jane Addams	159
	Maura Striano
 Part III From the Past to the Future: Interdisciplinary Approaches and Global Challenges
14	Bringing the Origins of Playgrounds into the Current Educational Debate: Jane Addams and the Kitchens of Socializing Democracy	173
	Laura Camas Garrido
15	Maxine Greene: Teaching Philosophy in Aesthetic Environments	187
	Àger Pérez Casanovas
16	Instigators of Experimental Artwork: Resonances of Jane Addams in Arts Education	199
	Ann Warde
17	The Introduction of Pragmatism in Architecture (1990– 2010)—The Role of Women and the Fate of Feminism	213
	Pauline Lefebvre
18	Experiences, Objectivity, and Collective Action in Feminism: A Pragmatist Analysis	225
	Charlie Brousseau
19	Looking for Feminist Pragmatist Roots of Degrowth Ideas: Jane Addams, Charlotte Perkins Gilman, Caroline Bartlett Crane	237
	Agnieszka Hensoldt
	Index	251