

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----|
| INTRODUCTION | vii |
| 1. Theodore J. Kisiel "The Missing Link in the Early Heidegger" | 1 |
| 2. Charles M. Sherover "The Hermeneutic Structure of Resoluteness: A Preliminary Exploration" | 41 |
| 3. Charles E. Scott "The Horizon of Time and Ontological Difference in The Basic Problems of Phenomenology " | 67 |
| 4. John D. Caputo "Modernity and the End of Philosophy in Being and Time " | 81 |
| 5. Joan Stambaugh "Heidegger on Schelling on Human Freedom" | 91 |
| 6. Michael Murray "The Greater Radicality and Questionability of Heidegger's Hermeneutics" | 107 |
| 7. Hans Seigfried "Transcendental Experiments (II): Kant and Heidegger" | 123 |
| 8. Richard E. Palmer "Hints for/of Hermeneutics in Was Heisst Denken? " | 157 |
| 9. Bernard P. Dauenhauer "On Language and the Unencompassable" | 211 |
| 10. John M. Anderson "The Origin of Dialogue: The Tempest Speaks" | 227 |

| | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 11. | Don Ihde "Technologies as Others: Alterity Relations" | 245 |
| 12. | Patrick A. Heelan "A Heideggerian Meditation on Science and Art" | 257 |
| 13. | Joseph J. Kockelmans "Hermeneutic Phenomenology and the Sociology of Religion" | 277 |
| 14. | Adrian Peperzak "The Relevance of Intersubjectivity for First Philosophy and the History of Philosophy" | 315 |
| | Appendix—Transcript of Discussions | 331 |
| | BIBLIOGRAPHY | 363 |
| | INDEX | 375 |