

CONTENTS

REFERENCES

xii

PART ONE

GENERAL INTRODUCTION

I. THE SCRIPTURAL BACKGROUND	I
1. The Authority of Scripture	I
2. The Moral Law	5
3. The Commonwealth	10
4. Conclusion	13
II. THE PHILOSOPHIC FRAMEWORK	14
III. RELIGIOUS WHOLE AND PHILOSOPHIC PART	22
1. Two Summaries	22
2. The New Science	26
3. The Limitations of the Argument from Principles of Nature only	30
4. The Benefit of Civil Philosophy	35
5. Scientific Certainty and Religious Conviction	37
IV. THE DEFINITIVE PRESENTATION OF CIVIL PHILOSOPHY	41
1. Introduction	41
2. The Problem of De Cive	43
3. The English and the Latin Leviathan	54

PART TWO

THE PRINCIPLES OF CIVIL PHILOSOPHY

V. PSYCHOLOGICAL PRINCIPLES OF POLITICS	57
VI. RELIGION	68

VII. THE NATURAL CONDITION OF MANKIND	74
1. The Methodological Fiction	74
2. The State of War	75
3. The Possibility of Peace	79
4. The Historicity of the State of Nature	81
VIII. NATURAL LAW AND NATURAL RIGHT	83
1. Introduction	83
2. The Definition of a Law of Nature	85
3. The Definition of the Right of Nature	90
4. A General Rule of Reason	94
5. The Laying Down of Right	96
6. Contract, Covenant and Gift	97
XI. MORAL VIRTUE	100
1. Laws of Virtue	100
2. Justice not Contrary to Reason	108
3. Justice of Men and Justice of Actions	110
X. OBLIGATIONS	114
1. Introduction	114
2. Two Types of Obligation	115
3. Right and Artificial Obligation	116
4. Artificial Obligation and Liability	119
5. Obligation and Impediment	120
6. The Fulfilment of Moral Obligation	122

PART THREE

THE NATURE OF THE COMMONWEALTH AND THE RIGHT OF THE SOVEREIGN

XI. THE INSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH	127
1. Introduction	127
2. The Cause of the Commonwealth	128
3. Covenants without the Sword	129
4. Covenants with the Sword	132
5. The Real Unity of the Commonwealth	133

XII. AUTHORITY	138
1. The Divine Authority of the Sovereign	138
2. Summa Potestas	146
3. Artificial Persons	147
4. Covenants of Authorization	149
5. The Origin of Artificial Right	154
6. The Ground of Summa Potestas	156
7. The Right to Punish	156
XIII. SOVEREIGNTY	160
1. The Selection of the Sovereign	160
2. Indivisible Sovereign Right	165
3. Kinds of Sovereignty	169
4. Paternal and Despotic Dominion	171
5. Scriptural Confirmation	175
6. The Historical Commonwealth	176
7. The English Commonwealth	179
8. Sovereignty De Jure and De Facto	183
XIV. THE LIBERTY OF SUBJECTS	186
1. Liberty	186
2. The True Liberty of a Subject	187
3. Artificial Liberty and Artificial Chains	189
4. Obligationes and Ligationes	191
5. Civil Rights and Property	192
6. Freedom of Association	194
XV. CIVIL LAWS	196
1. Introduction	196
2. The Law of Nature and the Civil Law	197
3. The Two Parts of Civil Law	203
XVI. THE OFFICE OF THE SOVEREIGN	209
1. Introduction	209
2. Public Instruction	211
3. Good Laws	222
XVII. THE KINGDOM OF GOD BY NATURE	226

PART FOUR

THE ARGUMENT FROM SCRIPTURE

XVIII. CHRISTIAN POLITICS	233
1. Introduction	233
2. Authority in the Church	237
3. The Office of the Christian Sovereign in the Church	239
4. The Duty of the Christian Subject of an Infidel Sovereign	249
5. The Kingdom of Darkness	250
INDEX	255

REFERENCES

- A.i.* = Brief Lives . . . by John Aubrey, ed. Andrew Clark, Oxford, 1898, vol. i.
- B.* = Behemoth, ed. F. Tönnies, London, 1889.
- E.L.* = The Elements of Law, Natural and Politic, ed. F. Tönnies, Cambridge, 1928.
- E.W.* = The English Works of Thomas Hobbes, ed. Sir William Molesworth, 11 volumes, London, 1839-45.
- L.* = Leviathan (Everyman edition), Dent.
- O.L.* = Thomae Hobbes . . . Opera . . . quae Latine scripsit, ed. Sir William Molesworth, 5 volumes, London, 1839-45.