

The CONTENTS.

INTRODUCTION, - pag. 1—21

PART I.

OF THE STANDARD OF TRUTH.

CHAPTER I.

Of the perception of Truth in general, - - pag. 28—51

CHAPTER II.

All reasoning terminates in first principles.
All evidence ultimately intuitive. Common sense the standard of Truth to man.

Sect. 1. Of Mathematical Reasoning, - - - pag. 54—60

Sect. 2. Of the evidence of External
Sense, - - - 60—68

Sect. 3.

vi                    C O N T E N T S.

Sect. 3. Of the evidence of Internal Sense, or Conscioufness,	pag. 68 — 90
Sect. 4. Of the evidence of Memory,	90 — 100
Sect. 5. Of Reasoning from the effect to the cause,                    -                    -	100 — 120
Sect. 6. Of Probable or Experimental Reasoning,                    -                    -	121 — 128
Sect. 7. Of Analogical Reasoning,	128 — 132
Sect. 8. Of Faith in Testimony,	132 — 139
Sect. 9. Conclusion of this Chapter. Further Proof.    General remarks on Scepticism,                    -                    -	140 — 156

P A R T        II.

ILLUSTRATIONS OF THE PRECEDING
DOCTRINE, WITH INFERENCES.

C H A P.        I.

Confirmation of this Doctrine from the Practice,

Sect. 1. Of Mathematicians,	pag. 161 — 172
Sect. 2. Of Natural Philosophers,	172 — 219

C H A P.

C H A P. II.

This Doctrine rejected by Sceptical Philosophers.

Sect. 1. General Observations. Rise and progress of Modern Scepticism. — Of Des Cartes and Malebranche. — Locke and Berkeley. — General view of Mr Hume's Theory of the Understanding, -	pag. 221 — 267
Sect. 2. Of the non-existence of Matter, - -	268 — 304
Sect. 3. Of Liberty and Necessity,	304 — 377

C H A P. III.

Recapitulation and Inference.

Criterion of Truth, -	377 — 383
-----------------------	-----------

P A R T III.

OBJECTIONS ANSWERED.

C H A P.

C H A P. I.

The principles of this Essay consistent with the interests of Science, and the rights of mankind. Imperfection of the School-logic, pag. 386 — 408

C H A P. II.

The subject continued. Estimate of Metaphysic and Metaphysical writers. Causes of the present degeneracy of Moral Science, - 408 — 484

C H A P. III.

Consequences of Metaphysical Scepticism, - - 485 — 503