

Contents

---

Preface	ix
Introduction: The Young Kant – Pietism and Rationalism	1
The Age of Enlightenment	1
The Pietist Movement	4
Rationalism and Deism	8
Kant's Upbringing and Education	19

PART ONE: THE TRUE BASIS OF THEISM

1 The Pre-Critical Period	27
The Early Writings	27
A Question-Mark over Metaphysics	33
2 The So-Called Proofs of Divine Existence	40
'A Critical Inquiry into the Faculty of Reason'	40
The Case against Rational Theology	41
3 The Moral Argument	49
Kant's Ethical Teaching	49
God as a Postulate of the Practical Reason	54
A Metaphysic of Faith	60
Immortality	65
4 Teleology	68
'The Critique of Judgment'	68
'Purpose' in Nature	70

5	Rational Theology Reviewed, and the Question of Theodicy	76
	Kant's Lectures on Philosophical Theology	76
	Where Reason Falters	79
PART TWO: INTERPRETING CHRISTIANITY
6	The Radical Evil in Human Nature	87
	'Religion within the Limits of Reason Alone'	87
	The Evil in Man is Willed	93
	Conversion	101
7	Good and Evil in Conflict	110
	The Opposing Principles	110
	The Good Principle Personified	111
	The Devil's Claim to Lordship over Man	116
	Miracles	120
8	The Victory of Good over Evil	123
	The Ethical 'State of Nature'	123
	The Ethical Commonwealth as a Church	125
	Revelation, Church Doctrine and Scripture	128
	What the Coming of the Kingdom of God Means	134
	Historical Religion	137
	Religious Mysteries: the Trinity	140
9	Institutionalism in Religion	145
	What Is the True Service of God?	145
	'Afterdienst'	149
	Conscience and Belief	151
	The Means of Grace	153

	Contents	vii
10	Last Thoughts on Philosophy of Religion	157
	The 'Opus Postumum'	157
	The Idea of God Once More	158
11	Conclusion	167
	Retrospect	167
	Kant and Modern Theology	177
	References and Notes	188
	Select Bibliography	210
	Index	211