

Contents

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xv
Part I Introduction	1
Background Matters	3
1 Reason, Belief, and What is Excluded	3
2 Sex/Gender and Reason	6
3 Contemporary Philosophy of Religion	13
4 Thinking from the Lives and Beliefs of Others	18
5 Anticipating Configurations and Refigurations	20
Part II Epistemological Frameworks of Belief	29
Chapter 1 The Rationality of Religious Belief: Reason in 'Crisis'	31
1 The So-called Crisis of Rationality	31
2 Religious Belief, Experience, and Epistemic Duty	33
3 The Empiricist Privileging of Formal Rationality	39
4 Epistemological Frameworks of Belief	42
5 Questioning the Neutrality of Rationality	47
6 Refiguring Rationality	53
7 A Critique of Reason	57

Chapter 2	Feminists and the Rationality of Belief, I: Strong Objectivity	67
1	Rationality and Epistemological Frameworks	67
2	Accounts of Objectivity	70
3	Objectivity as Too Weak	73
4	Strong Objectivity	76
5	The Subject of Feminist Standpoint Epistemology	83
6	What is Still Lacking for Feminist Belief	87
7	A Critical Coda	92
Chapter 3	Feminists and the Rationality of Belief, II: Female Desire	98
1	New Content for Belief	98
2	Desire and the Rational Subject	103
3	Sexually Specific Discourse and the Numinous	106
4	Post-patriarchal Philosophy and Religion	109
5	On the Buried Maternal	114
6	A Feminist Modification of Rational Belief	119
Part III	Refigurations of Belief	125
Chapter 4	Myth, Mimesis, and Religious Belief	127
1	Reason, Embodiment, and Belief	127
2	Rethinking Myth	135
3	Defining Mimesis	143
4	Sexual Identity in Religion	148
5	Mimetic Refigurations	153
6	A Regulative Ideal: Reason and Desire	158
Chapter 5	Figuring the Rationality of Religious Belief: Belief, Action, and Devotion	165
1	Figuring Belief: Reinventing Ourselves as Other	165
2	Rational Passion and Female Desire: Yearning	171
3	Reading Belief in Myths of Dissent	176
4	Marginality and Dissent: Antigone and Mirabai	184
5	Dominant Configurations of Religious Devotion	190
6	Rationality of Belief Mimed	195
7	Preliminary Conclusion: Yearning Assessed	200

Part IV Conclusion	207
Final Critical Matters	209
1 Reason and the Philosophical Imaginary	209
2 Enlightenment Rationality and Patriarchy	216
3 Reason's 'Crisis' and the Female Symbolic	222
4 Belief and the Existence of a Personal Deity	227
5 The Problem of a Universal Assumption: Patriarchy	230
6 Death and Woman: Destructive and Creative	235
Summary	245
Bibliography	248
Index	273