

Contents

Preface	xi
Introduction	I

PART ONE Late-Modern Topics

Chapter 1.	The Contingencies of Nature	9
	Nature Defined	9
	Cosmological Contingency: Determinateness and Time's Flow	13
	Ontological Contingency: Creation and Eternity	19
	Symbols of Ontological Asymmetry	24
Chapter 2.	Human Nature	29
	Defining Human Nature	29
	To Be under Obligation	31
	The Human Condition	36
	Orientation and Poise	39
Chapter 3.	Religious Symbols	45
	Symbolic Meaning and Religion	45
	The Reference of Religious Symbols	52
	The Interpretation of Religious Symbols	57
	The Truth of Religious Symbols	61
Chapter 4.	The Symbols of Divine Action	66
	The Concept of God	67
	What Can We Know about God?	72
	When Can We Say God Is a Personal Agent?	77
	When Should We Not Say God Is a Personal Agent?	84

Chapter 5.	Eternity and the Transformation of Soul	88
	Eternity as a Contemporary Problem	88
	Plotinus and Eternity	91
	The Transformation of Soul to Engage Eternity	95
	The Engagement of Eternity	97
	Eternity Engaged through the Temporal	100
	Eternity in Time: Real and Illusory	102
	Eternity and Immortality	105

PART TWO

Late-Modern Religion

Chapter 6.	Religion and Scholarship	109
	Recent History of the Study of Religions	110
	Participation and Distance in a Typology of the Study of Religions	115
	Models of Spirituality among Historically Conscious Scholars	126
Chapter 7.	Religion and Society	131
	World Society, World Culture, World Community	132
	The Causal Effectiveness of Religions	138
	Global Modernization and Religious Traditions	144
	Maitreyan Strategies	150
Chapter 8.	Religion and Politics: Spheres of Tolerance	158
	Religious Wars and the Alleged Privacy of Religion	158
	Obligation and Civil Religion	162
	Ultimacy and Religions' Essential Features	164
	Political Tolerance of Religions	166
	Religion and Public Theology	169
Chapter 9.	Religion and the American Experiment	171
	The American Religious Scene	172
	The Experiment: An Hypothesis	176
	What Makes Religions Religious	179
Chapter 10.	Religion and Vital Engagement	184
	Engagement and Competence	184
	Ralph Waldo Emerson and the Oversoul	188

The Soul Transformed 192
 Emerson, Nietzsche, and Jesus:
 A Challenge to Modernism 196

PART THREE

Religion and Philosophy in Late Modernity

Chapter 11. The Public Character of Theology and Religious Studies 203

Chapter 12. Religions, Philosophies, and Philosophy of Religion 217
 The Impact of Scholarship on Philosophy of Religion 217
 A Definition of Philosophy of Religion 221
 The Problematic of Translation and Comparison 225
 Comparison, Philosophy, and Theology 229

Chapter 13. A Paleopragmatic Philosophy of the History of Philosophy 233
 Paleopragmatism 233
 Signs: The Phenomenology, Comparison, and Lineages of Philosophies 235
 Philosophies as Referents:
 Structures, Insights, Orientation 239
 Philosophies as Interpretive Engagements:
 Truth, Usability, Fallibilism 242

Notes 249
 References 261
 Index 269