

CONTENTS

PREFACE / xi

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS / xiii

Introduction: A Theology of the Event 1

Part One. The Weakness of God

1. God without Sovereignty 23

2. St. Paul on the Logos of the Cross 42

3. The Beautiful Risk of Creation: On Genesis ad literam (Almost) 55

4. Omnipotence, Unconditionality, and the Weak Force of God 84

Hermeneutical Interlude: Two Keys to the Kingdom

5. The Poetics of the Impossible 101

6. Hyper-Realism and the Hermeneutics of the Call 113

Part Two. The Kingdom of God: Sketches of a Sacred Anarchy

7. Metanoetics: The Seventh Day, or Making
All Things New 127

8. Quotidianism: Every Day, or Keeping
Time Holy 155

9. Back to the Future: Peter Damian on the Remission of Sin and Changing the Past 182

10. Forgiven Time: The Pharisee and the Tax Collector	208
11. “Lazarus, Come Out”: Rebirth and Resurrection	236
12. The Event of Hospitality: On Being Inside/Outside the Kingdom of God	259
Appendix to Part Two: Newly Discovered Fragments on the Kingdom of God from “The Gospel of Miriam”	279

A Concluding Prayer	283
---------------------	-----

NOTES /	301
---------	-----

GENERAL INDEX /	341
-----------------	-----

SCRIPTURAL INDEX /	355
--------------------	-----