

Contents

Preface	IX
Acknowledgements	XI
Abbreviations	XII
Editors and Contributors	XXI

PART 1

Introduction

Introduction: New Approaches	3
Tessa Rajak

Prologue: Looking Back at Patients' Prayers in Babylonian Incantations and Hebrew Individual Complaint	17
Erhard S. Gerstenberger†

PART 2

The Psalms in the Second Temple Period

Building a Community of the Elect through Psalms and Prayers Liturgy, Education, and Prophetic Interpretation	37
Mika S. Pajunen

The Motif of the Heavenly Cult in the Psalms and at Qumran	60
Beate Ego

Retelling Foundational Events in Psalm 106: Experiencing and Remembering the Past	83
Angela Kim Harkins

The Septuagint Psalms and Their Setting	105
James K. Aitken†

PART 3The Psalms in Late Antique Religious Poetry

The Psalms Are Not Enough

The Revolution of Hebrew Liturgical Poetry (Piyyut) in Late Antiquity 133

Ophir Münz-Manor

The Prayers of Moses: Psalm 90 and Moses's Refusal to Die 147

Laura S. Lieber

PART 4The Psalms in Rabbinic and Medieval Judaism and Beyond

The Centrality of the Book of Psalms in Judaism and Its Major Interpretations prior to and during the Middle Ages

Approaches, Authorship, Genre, and Polemics 163

Isaac Kalimi

Psalm 8 as a Case Study in "Embedded" Jewish Commentary 198

Alan Cooper

The Early Medieval Emergence of Jewish Daily Morning Psalms Recitation, Pesuke de-Zimra 222

Ruth Langer

Psalms in Kabbalistic Texts and Ritual 241

Susanne Talabardon

Index of Sources 261

Index of Names, Places and Subjects 272