

Contents

	Introduction	v
	Contributors	xix
	List of Figures	xxiii
Chapter 1	The “Spirit of Freedom”: Wakanda and Black Utopias of the Progressive Era Alicia Matheny Beeson West Virginia University at Parkersburg	1
Chapter 2	Souls of Wakanda: The Intersection of W.E.B. Du Bois and Black Panther Diana Forry Indiana University of Pennsylvania	21
Chapter 3	Step into the Spotlight-Introducing Marvel Comics ‘Adored Ones’ the Dora Milaje Grace D. Gipson Virginia Commonwealth University	35
Chapter 4	Cutting the Tongue of the Drum: Black Panther and the Dominion of the Visual Aaron Rosenberg The College of Mexico A.C.	61
Chapter 5	Afro-Asian Filmic Duet Sheng-mei Ma Michigan State University	77
Chapter 6	Wakanda Forever: On the Impossibility of Black Visibility Raquel Baker California State University	99
Chapter 7	Black Ajax: Why Must N’Jadaka Die? Daniel Conway Texas A&M University	119

Chapter 8	Juxtapositioned Wakanda and Black Metonymy	135
	Jorge Serrano University of Delaware
Chapter 9	Black Panther and Quilombo, Wakanda and Palmares: How the Past Dreams the Future and the Future Remembers the Past, Creating Afrocentric Utopias across Time and Space	159
	Patricia Varas Willamette University
	Notes	177
	Index	207