

CONTENTS

PREFACE.....	xi
--------------	----

Part One

THE NEW INTELLECTUAL PARADIGM FROM TORAH-STUDY TO THE RELIGIOUS STUDY OF JUDAISM: A PARADIGM SHIFT IN JUDAIC STUDIES

Chapter

I. THE PARADIGM SHIFT IN JUDAIC STUDIES: TAKING THE MEASURE OF THE INSTITUTIONAL, INTELLECTUAL, POLITICAL, AND THEOLOGICAL CHANGE	3
II. WHAT HAPPENS TO SCHOLARSHIP WHEN PARADIGMS SHIFT: DOES THE END OF THE OLD MARK THE BEGINNING OF THE NEW?	11
i. Saul Lieberman (1898-1982): From Fixed Association to Free Association.....	14
ii. Salo W. Baron (1895-): Social Science and Conceptual Chaos.....	23
iii. The First Generation Out and In.....	31
III. ONE NEW INTELLECTUAL PARADIGM OF LEARNING: EXPLAINING AN OUEVRE	35
i. History of Judaism in Autobiographical Context.....	35
ii. Autonomy, Connection, Continuity.....	35
iii. Reframing the Paradigm.....	37
iv. Viewing Religions as Systems, Illustrated by Cases Drawn from Judaism	38
v. Explaining an Ouevre	40

Part Two

THE NEW POLITICAL PARADIGM WHEN A PARADIGM DECAYS: SIGNS OF THE END OF THE OLD AND THE ADVENT OF THE NEW

IV. THE COMING CRISIS IN ETHNIC STUDIES: THE EXAMPLE OF JUDAISM.....	47
V. BOOK-REVIEWING AS A BLOOD SPORT: THREE RECENT CASES	55
i. Kugel's Attack on Alter.....	56
ii. Gaylord's Attack on Basser.....	57
iii. Lightstone's Attack on Basser.....	59

THE NEW SCHOLARLY PARADIGMWHAT IS AT STAKE IN THE PASSING OF A PARADIGM: INTELLECTUAL EVENTS

VI.	WHAT IS AT STAKE IN THE PASSING OF A PARADIGM: THE CASE OF JUDAISM: THE EVIDENCE OF THE MISHNAH . APOLOGIA AND SYMPOSIUM.....	63
i.	Apologia: The Mishnah and the Smudgepots. Or Why, When There's Smoke, There Isn't Always Fire	63
ii.	Symposium on The Mishnah and the Smudgepot . Meir Bar-Ilan, Shaye J. D. Cohen, William Scott Green, Samson Levey, Hyam Maccoby.	76
iii.	Response.....	83
VII.	THE DEBATE WITH ELIEZER SCHWEID ON JUDAISM: THE EVIDENCE OF THE MISHNAH	87
i.	The Self-Interpreting Mishnah. Review of Jacob Neusner, Judaism: The Evidence of the Mishnah . By Eliezer Schweid, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Translated by David A. Weiner.....	87
ii.	Response.....	95
VIII.	WHEN SCHOLARSHIP BECOMES OBSOLETE: SAFRAI'S THE LITERATURE OF THE SAGES	101
IX.	THE END OF "JEWISH HISTORY:" ONE EXAMPLE. PAUL JOHNSON'S HISTORY OF THE JEWS	105
X.	WHAT IS AT STAKE IN A PARADIGM SHIFT: THE ISSUE OF DOCUMENTARY DISCOURSE. THE CASE OF SIFRA.....	109
i.	The Stakes in Learning: The Questions We Can, and Cannot, Ask.....	109
ii.	The Problem of Introducing an Authorship and its Document.....	111
iii.	The Plan and Program of Sifra in Documentary Context.....	115
iv.	The Case of Sifra And a Sample	119
v.	The Rhetorical Plan of Sifra.....	123
vi.	Program.....	134
vii.	Sifra as an Autonomous Document	136
viii.	Sifra and the Debate with James Kugel.....	137
ix.	The Logic of the Mishnah and the Polemic of Sifra.....	141
x.	The System of the Mishnah and its Logic of Classification.....	142
xi.	Sifra's Critique of the Logic of the Mishnah.....	150
xii.	Defining Sifra: A First Experiment	155

Part Four

THE NEW THEOLOGICAL PARADIGM

PROBLEMS IN THE NASCENT PARADIGM: THE ACADEMIC STUDY OF RELIGION IN CONFRONTATION WITH THE THEOLOGICAL STUDY OF JUDAISM

XI.	THE PASSING OF "THE JUDAEO-CHRISTIAN TRADITION"	161
i.	Why People Wanted a Single "Judaean-Christian Tradition"	161
ii.	Different People Talking about Different Things to Different People	163
iii.	The Disjuncture between Judaism and Christianity. The Case of the New Testament.....	165
iv.	Self-Evidence or Utter Incomprehension: Which?	166
v.	Studying about Judaism in its Own Right	172
XII.	HERMENEUTICS AND "THE JUDAISM BEYOND THE TEXTS"	175
EPILOGUE
XIII.	THE ACADEMY AS A PLACE OF LEARNING.....	187
INDEX	197