

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
1 The Challenge of Religious Pluralism	7
Judaism and the World's Religions	7
Exclusivism	11
Inclusivism	14
Pluralism	18
Models of Judaism and Other Faiths	20
2 Biblical and Early Rabbinic Views	25
The Bible and Idolatry	25
The Noahide Laws and Idolatrous Practices	29
Rabbenu Tam and the Kabbalists	32
Moses Maimonides	36
Judah Halevi	39
3 Medieval Conflict between Jews and Christians	43
Christian Massacre and Murder	44
The Paris Disputation of 1240	47
The Barcelona Disputation of 1263	50
The Black Plague and the Jewish Reaction	54
The Tortosa Disputation of 1413–14	57
4 Persecution and Apostasy in the Early Modern Period	61
Marranos	62
The Inquisition and the Marranos	64
Torture and Exile	67
The Dispersion of the Marranos	70
The Shabbatean Movement	72
5 The Impact of the Enlightenment	75
The Emancipation of Jewry	75
Baruch Spinoza	78
Moses Mendelssohn	81

	Joseph Salvador	84
	Abraham Geiger	89
6	Jewish Reflections in the Age of Emancipation	93
	Samuel Hirsch	93
	Solomon Formstecher	96
	Solomon Ludwig Steinheim	99
	Hermann Cohen	103
	Claude Montefiore	107
7	Modern Jewish Thought	113
	Max Brod	114
	Franz Rosenzweig	117
	Leo Baeck	120
	Martin Buber	125
	Jacob Klausner	129
8	Post-Holocaust Jewish Thinkers	133
	Hans Joachim Schoeps	134
	Richard Rubenstein	137
	Emil Fackenheim	141
	Ignaz Maybaum	145
	Arthur A. Cohen	148
9	Jewish Religious Pluralism	153
	Judaism and Other Religions	154
	A Pluralistic Model	157
	A Theology of Religious Pluralism	161
	Ranking Judaism and Other Faiths	164
	Theological Implications of Jewish Pluralism	167
	Conclusion	173
	Bibliography	179
	Index	183