

Contents

PREFACE	VII
TRANSLITERATION	XIII
ABBREVIATIONS	XV
INTRODUCTION	1

PART ONE: REVELATION IN EARLY ISLAM

1. The Early Muslim Understanding of the Prophetic-Revelatory Event	9
A. The Unity of the Prophetic-Revelatory Event as the Basis of Muslim Traditionalism.	9
B. The Unity of Prophetic Word and Divine Word as Channels of Authority	13
Notes.	19
2. Concepts of Revelation in Early Islam	25
A. The Early Muslim Understanding of Qur'ânic Revelation	25
B. The Early Muslim Understanding of 'Extra-Qur'ânic' Revelation	32
Notes.	40

PART TWO: THE DIVINE SAYING

3. The Divine Saying as Problem	51
A. The Divine Saying in Western Scholarship	51
B. The Divine Saying in Muslim Scholarship	55
C. The Divine Saying in Muslim Piety	66
Notes.	73

4. The Divine Saying in Early Islam	81
A. Early Sources of the Divine Saying	82
B. Forms of the Early Divine Saying	85
C. The Material of the Early Divine Saying	91
D. Themes of the Early Divine Saying	95
Notes.	101
5. Conclusion: The Divine Saying as Divine Word and Prophetic Word	107

PART THREE: THE EARLY DIVINE SAYING: TEXTS, TRANSLATIONS, AND SOURCES

Introduction to Part III	113
Texts, Translations, and Sources	117
Notes	215

APPENDICES

A. Muslim Collections of Divine Sayings	227
B. Isnâds to the Divine Sayings in Part III	230
C. Index to the Divine Sayings in Part III	240
BIBLIOGRAPHY	245
INDEX	259