

Contents

Glossary	xi
Preface	xv
Introduction Mohammad Asghar Khan	1
1. Islam and Politics Eqbal Ahmed	13
Problems in Perception	13
Relationship between Religion and Politics	17
Contrasting Trends in the Politics of Islam	21
Unity in Diversity	23
Crisis of Muslim Society	25
Colonial Encounter and the Trauma of Muslim Life	27
2. The Progressive Islamic Movement Suroosh Irfani	31
Introduction	31
Beginnings of the Movement	33
Shah Waliullah and the Reassertion of Ijtihād	38
Mujāhideen-i-Khalq and the Revolution in Iran	43
Ali Shariati and the New Wave of Consciousness	49
The Methodology of the Prophet's Revolution	50
Progressive Islam and Socialism	55
Islam vs. Islam	60
Conclusion	62
3. Pakistan: The Ideological Dimension Abbas Rashid	69
Ideology and the Nation-State	69
'Defining' the Muslim Identity in India	73
The Founder's Perception	77
Religious Orthodoxy vs. Uncertain Liberalism	82
The Liberal Response	85
Institutionalisation of the Orthodox Framework	89
4. Maudoodi's Islamic State Zafaryab Ahmed	95
Nature of the State	95
Sovereignty and Political Power	97

‘Islamic Democracy’	99
Organs of the State	102
The Authoritarian State	106
The Muslim Community — Monolithic or Diverse?	109
5. Islamisation of Society in Pakistan Ziaul Haque	114
Introduction	114
The Phenomenon of Underdevelopment	115
Revolutionary Islam	116
‘Feudal Islam’	118
‘Bourgeois Islam’	120
Islamic Ideology and the Process of ‘Islamisation’	121
Conclusion	123
6. Political and Economic Aspects of Islamisation
Omar Asghar Khan	127
Introduction	127
Islam and the State	128
Democratic or Ideological State?	133
Historical and Theoretical Roots of Islamisation	137
The Jamā’at-i-Islāmi ’s Islamic Model	138
Blueprint for Authoritarianism	140
Politics of Islamisation	143
Social Costs of Islamisation	145
Islamisation within a Feudal-Capitalist Framework	149
Landlordism and Ribā	152
Development of Capitalism in Muslim Societies	154
Historical and Structural Roots of Underdevelopment in Pakistan	158
Conclusion	160
7. Rewriting the History of Pakistan Pervez Amirali Hoodbhoy and Abdul Hameed Nayyar	164
Introduction	164
Genesis of the ‘Ideology of Pakistan’	166
Religious Ideology and the Movement for Pakistan	168
Jinnah’s Mind: Secular or Communal?	169
The Role of the Religious Parties	171
1947-77: The Gulf of Silence	173
Islamisation in Textbooks	174
Conclusion	175
8. Ideological Problems for Science in Pakistan
Pervez Amirali Hoodbhoy	178
Introduction	178
Defining Science	179
The Birth of Modern Science	180

The Rise and Fall of Science in the Muslim World	182
Efforts Towards a Muslim Renaissance	183
Science and the Maulvi	185
Returning to Mediaevalism	187
Promoting Illogic through Education	190
Conclusion	191
9. Pakistan: The Crisis of the State Akmal Hussain	195
Introduction	195
The Emerging Muslim Bourgeoisie, the British and the Congress: 1857-1905	196
The Nationalist Movement and the Communal Question: 1905-28	198
The Emergence of the Muslim League	200
The Military-Bureaucratic Oligarchy	207
The Sociology of the Officer Corps	210
Politicisation of the Military	213
Contradictions and the Nature of Economic Growth	215
Class Composition of the Pakistan People's Party and the State Apparatus	220
Socio-Economic Causes of the Anti-Bhutto Movement	223
Conclusion	224
10. Pakistan's Problems of National Integration Feroz Ahmed	229
Introduction	229
Nation or Nationality?	230
The Evolution of National Consciousness	232
Causes of Resentment in Sind	234
Structural Problems	240
Class and Nationality	241
Nationality or Province	243
Conclusion	244
11. Pakistan's Geopolitical Imperatives Mohammad Asghar Khan	247
Strategic Considerations	247
Soviet Presence and Interests	248
United States' Interests in Pakistan	250
The India Factor — The Turnabout	252
The Islamic Factor	253
Misuse of Islam and its Divisive Effects	255
Federalism	257
The Human Factor	259
Servants, Not Masters	263
The Future	266
Contributors	268
Index	270