

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	11
Introduction	13
PART I
THE EARLY YEARS OF CRISPIJN DE PASSE'S PUBLISHING BUSINESS
Chapter 1
The Antwerp years (1580-1588)	19
Crispijn de Passe and Maarten de Vos	20
Prints for Protestant publishers	24
Prints for Philips Galle and Plantin	28
Chapter 2
Forced emigration: an interlude in Aachen and a home in Cologne	33
The Aachen prints (1588-1589)	33
The move to Cologne	38
The births of the children	41
PART II
THE BUSINESS FLOURISHES: THE COLOGNE YEARS (1589-1611)
Chapter 3
De Passe as print publisher	45
The print designers	52
Collaboration with Neo-Latinist poets	57
Carel Utenhove	58
Matthias Quad	60
Wilhelm Salsmann	64
Ensius, Lanius, Pincier and Pegand	66
Dedications on prints	68
Dedications to princes	70
Dedications to prominent citizens of Cologne	72
Dedications to friends and colleagues outside Cologne	76
Business with London	81

Chapter 4
The subject matter of the prints	85
Current affairs: portraits and propaganda	85
The French monarchy	87
The English monarchy	91
The 'Mirror of illustrious women'	92
Generals and their victories	98
Scholars and notables closer to home	101
Religious subjects	106
Virtues and exemplars	116
Microcosm and macrocosm	118
Classical antiquity	129
Ornament prints	132
Lessons in love	135
Laughing at love	138
 Chapter 5
Print books	149
Bound print series	149
The 'Depictions of kings' (1598) and 'The small book of Sibyls' (1601)	151
Collaboration with the Arnhem book printer Jan Janszoon the Elder	154
Rollenhagen's 'Emblemata' (1611)	157
The alba amicorum	160
The underlying art theory: Horace's combination of profit and pleasure	166
 Chapter 6
Prelude to a second emigration	171
 PART III
THE UTRECHT YEARS (1611-1637)
 Chapter 7
A new home in Utrecht: major projects	175
Friendship with Aernout van Buchell	178
Poems and inscriptions	182
Van Buchell's print collection	186
New publishing strategy	188
Choice of subject	189
The market	190

The books of prints	192
The 'History of the Jewish patriarchs' (1612)	192
The 'Students' book' (1612)	193
Illustrations of the works of Virgil (1612)	194
Homer's 'Iliad' (1613)	195
The second volume of Rollenhagen's 'Emblemata' (1613)	196
 Chapter 8
Crispijn the younger, Simon, Willem and Magdalena in the workshop	199
Gottfridt Müller's album	201
Pupils from outside the family circle	203
The 'Book of flowers' (1614)	205
Religious scenes and exempla	212
Profane allegories	224
Portraits	229
Portraits of friends	229
European and Dutch nobility	232
Love emblems	239
 Chapter 9
International expansion	243
Simon in London (1616-1622)	243
Crispijn de Passe's 'Book of famous Englishmen' (1620) and the English market	246
Willem in London (1621-1636/1637)	249
Simon back in the Netherlands	251
Simon as court engraver to the King of Denmark	254
Crispijn the Younger in Paris (1618-1629)	258
The 'Royal Riding School' (1623)	262
A firm foothold in Paris	266
 Chapter 10
On the home front	271
Crispijn the Elder and the French market	271
Portraits	272
The main protagonists in Dutch politics	272
The Dutch nobility	278
Preachers' portraits	281
Current events	281

Magdalena strikes out on her own	283
The Ovid project	287
Nightcaps	291
Magdalena's fame	293
Crispijn the Younger back in Utrecht	295
The 'Book of courtesans' (1630)	297
Victory allegories and portraits of politicians	299
Book illustrations for Amsterdam publishers	309
PART IV
CRISPIJN DE PASSE THE YOUNGER: PROMISE UNFULFILLED
Chapter 11
Marriages and deaths in the family	315
Magdalena's marriage	315
Crispijn the Elder's controversial remarriage	316
Attempt to distribute the estate	319
Commissions from the Danish king	320
The first inventory of De Passe's estate	323
Chapter 12
Crispijn the younger's career in Amsterdam (1639-1670)	327
Books of prints	328
The 'Book of shepherdesses' (1640)	329
'The mistake off Matrimonij' (1641)	331
'The German eagle brought down' (1642)	334
'The painters' manual' (1643-44)	337
Personal and business difficulties	340
Portraits of preachers and professors	343
Broadsheets	345
Settling estates and other difficulties	363
The second inventory of De Passe's estate	366
More money troubles	368
Crispijn's arrest and conviction over a print	370
Epilogue	377
Notes to part I	379

Notes to part II	383
Notes to part III	407
Notes to part IV	434
Appendix I
The copperplates in the inventory of 1639	447
Appendix II
The copperplates in the inventory of 1653	455
Abbreviations	463
Archival sources	465
Manuscript sources	466
Printed primary sources	467
Bibliography	473
Index of persons	493