

Contents

List of Tables and Maps	x
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xiv
List of Abbreviations	xvi
The Early Modern Popes	xvii
1 Religious Crises and Challenges in Early Sixteenth-Century Italy	1
2 The Council of Trent and Bases for Continuing Reform	19
Background and Criticisms	19
The Council's Main Work	23
General Problems over Implementation	32
Ready for Action?	35
3 Centre and Peripheries: The Papacy, Congregations, Religious Orders	37
The Papacy	38
Congregations	43
The Venetian Interdict Crisis	48
The Inquisition	51
Religious Orders	54
4 Episcopal Leadership	62
The Diocesan Map	63
'Model' Bishops	67
Bishops at Work and Diocesan Organisation	73

5	Parish Priests and Parishioners	86
	Reforming the Parochial Systems	86
	Finding Suitable Priests	89
	The Duties of Parish Clergy	93
	The Parish Church as Focus	96
	Betrothal and Marriage	98
	Confession	103
	Peacemaking	106
	Priest–Parishioner Relations and Immorality	107
6	Religious Education	112
	Seminaries and Clerical Education	113
	Education in the Parish and Christian Doctrine Schools	119
	Preaching	125
	Mission Work within Italy	127
7	Confraternities, Hospitals and Philanthropy	130
	Confraternities	131
	Philanthropy	141
8	Nunneries and Religious Women	149
	Nunneries and Female Enclosure	150
	Convent Culture	161
	Some Other Religious Women	166
9	Repression and Control	171
	Sentencing	175
	Public Condemnation and Controlling Major Heresy	178
	Censorship	181
	Changing Inquisition Targets	186
	Sexual Control	195
10	Churches, Cultural Enticement and Display	197
	Churches and Chapels	198
	Visual Arts	203
	Music	209
	Forty-Hour Devotions (Quarantore)	216
	Processions, Pilgrimages and Theatricality	217

11	Conclusions: Successes and Failures	223
	Appendix: The Italian Bishoprics	229
	Notes	250
	A Brief Reading Guide	275
	Bibliography	277
	Index	300