

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Latino America in the Umma/the Umma in Latino America 1

John Tofik Karam, María del Mar Logroño Narbona, and Paulo G. Pinto

PART 1. Reconsidering History

CHAPTER ONE. “De los Prohibidos”: Muslims and Moriscos in Colonial Spanish America 25

Karoline P. Cook

CHAPTER TWO. African Rebellion and Refuge on the Edge of Empire 46

John Tofik Karam

CHAPTER THREE. Ethnic and Religious Identification among Muslim
East Indians in Suriname (1898–1954) 63

Ellen Bal and Kathinka Sinha-Kerkhoff

PART 2. Contemporary Cartographies

CHAPTER FOUR. Institutionalizing Islam in Argentina: Comparing
Community and Identity Configurations 85

Silvia Montenegro

CHAPTER FIVE. Conversion, Revivalism, and Tradition: The Religious Dynamics of Muslim Communities in Brazil 107

Paulo G. Pinto

CHAPTER SIX. Guests of Islam: Conversion and the Institutionalization of Islam in Mexico 144

Camila Pastor de María y Campos

CHAPTER SEVEN. Cubans Searching for a New Faith in a New Context 190

Luis Mesa Delmonte

CHAPTER EIGHT. Muslims in Martinique 206

Liliane Kuczynski

CHAPTER NINE. Forming Islamic Religious Identity among Trinidadians in the Age of Social Networks 225

Halima-Sa'adia Kassim

PART 3. Islam Latina/o

CHAPTER TEN. Dis-covering a Historical Consciousness: The Creation of a US Latina/o Muslim Identity 255

Hjamil A. Martínez-Vázquez

CHAPTER ELEVEN. Mapping Muslim Communities in "Hispanicized"
South Florida 276

Mirsad Krijestorac

CHAPTER TWELVE. Double-Edged Marginality and Agency: Latina
Conversion to Islam 304

Yesenia King and Michael P. Perez

Conclusion 325

List of Contributors 331

Index 337