

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Note on Transliteration, Translation, and Gendered Language xiii

Introduction 1

The Qur'ān and the Religious Other 1

Theology of Religions and Islamic Contributions 4

Muslima Theology? 7

Qur'ān Only? 10

Overview of Chapters 11

PART ONE: Historical and Contemporary Approaches to Religious Otherness

1. Self and Other in Historical Islamic Discourse 17

Rejecting the Other and Projecting the Self: Polemical and Apologetic Trends 18

Delineations of Qur'ānic Difference: Exegetical and Juridical
Trends 26

Theocentric Oneness and Differentiated Multiplicity: Mystical and Sufi Trends 38

Selves and Others 47

2. Sameness and Difference in Contemporary Islamic Approaches to Religious Diversity 49

Prioritization of Sameness 50

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Simultaneous Affirmation of Sameness and Difference                            | 60 |
| Prioritization of Difference   | 66 |
| Proximity and Otherness: The Prevailing Conception ofDifference and Beyond | 71 |
| Two Shortcomings   | 77 |

PART TWO: Conceptual and Hermeneutical Foundations of Muslima Theology

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 3. Contemporary Muslim Women Interpreters of theQur'ān: Hermeneutical Approach and Conception of Difference   | 81  |
| Qur'ān-Centered Hermeneutical Approach  | 83  |
| (Re)Conception of Difference  | 87  |
| Forays into Religious Difference  | 92  |
| Trajectories of Analysis  | 95  |
| 4. From Sexual Difference to Religious Difference: FeministTheological Approaches to Religious Difference     | 97  |
| Dialogue amid Diversity   | 98  |
| Theology of Religions: Feminist Theological Critiques andContributions  | 103 |
| Insights and Extensions: Toward a Muslima Theology ofReligious Pluralism                               | 114 |
| 5. From Holistic Interpretation to Relational Hermeneutics:Toshihiko Izutsu's Semantic Analysis of the Qur'ān | 122 |
| Relational Meaning and the Semantic Weltanschauung :Toshihiko Izutsu's Method of Analysis              | 124 |
| The Qur'ānic Weltanschauung : Conceptual Opposition and aBasic Moral Dichotomy                         | 126 |
| Insights: Toward a Muslima Hermeneutic of Relationality  | 131 |

PART THREE: A Muslima Theology of Religious Pluralism

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 6. Lateral and Hierarchical Religious Difference in the Qur'ān  | 139 |
| Defining Characteristics of Hierarchical and Lateral Difference | 139 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Hierarchical Religious Difference: The Semantic Fieldof Taqwā                                       | 141 |
| Lateral Religious Difference: The Semantic Field of Umma  | 154 |
| Umma and Reification?   | 171 |
| Taqwā and Denotative Stability?   | 179 |
| 7. Relational Mapping of the Semantic Field of Taqwā : Concepts ofHierarchical Religious Difference | 182 |
| Recognition of and Attitude toward God   | 184 |
| Response to God's Guidance   | 208 |
| Type and Nature of Actions   | 224 |
| Observations and Implications  | 237 |
| 8. Never Wholly Other: Sameness, Difference, and Relationality   | 241 |
| Creation and Theological Anthropology  | 241 |
| Creation and Revelation  | 244 |
| Revelation and Revelation  | 247 |
| Purpose of Lateral Religious Difference  | 250 |
| The Religious Other and the Qur'ān   | 253 |
| Notes   | 255 |
| Glossary of Arabic Terms  | 283 |
| Bibliography  | 289 |
| Index   | 307 |
| Verse Index   | 329 |