

Contents

Introduction	vii
1. Early Buddhism	1
Background to Early Buddhism	1
Gautama the Buddha	9
Teachings of the Buddha	14
The Four Noble Truths	15
Impermanence and No-self	18
Nirvana	22
The Growth of Buddhism	26
Thervada Buddhism	26
2. The Dharma Goes East	33
Mahayana Buddhism	33
Mahayana Literature	38
The Bodhisattva Ideal	40
Nagarjuna and Emptiness	42
The Buddha Nature	47
Pure Land Buddhism	49
Zen Buddhism	56
Vajrayana and Tibetan Buddhism	62
Tibetan Buddhism	64
3. The Dharma Comes West	69
The World's Parliament of Religions	72
Buddhism in America	75

Orientalism	80
D.T. Suzuki and Zen	83
Masao Abe	95
4. Aspects of Buddhist Doctrine	105
Religious Exclusivism	106
Buddhist Doctrine and Truth	111
Rebirth and Karma	117
Impermanence, No-self and Dependent Co-origination	121
Appearances and Reality	128
Dependent Co-origination and Determination	131
Conscious States	136
Enlightenment and Nirvana	141
5. Some Buddhist Schools and Issues	145
Personalism	147
Action, Karma and Rebirth	150
Rebirth and Karma Fine-Tuned	151
Memory	152
Seeking and Finding Enlightenment	153
Interpretations of Madhyamaka: Nihilism	157
Interpretations of Madhyamaka: Absolutism	161
Interpretations of Madhyamaka: Ineffabilism	161
Buddhist Reductionism	166
6. The Dharma or the Gospel?	175
The Gospel and the Dharma	177
God	181
Jesus	192
Conclusion	211
Bibliography	213
Index	227