

Contents

Preface	ix
1. A Phenomenological and Historical Approach to Rāmānuja's Theology	1
2. Rāmānuja's Life	24
3. The Sanskrit Writings Attributed to Rāmānuja	49
4. Rāmānuja's Definitions and Descriptions of the Divine Nature	65
5. Paratva and Saulabhya as Interpretive Concepts	77
6. Svarūpa and Svabhāva: Two Kinds of Divine Essence	88
7. The Five Defining Attributes of God's Essential Nature	98
8. The Supreme Creator	114
9. The Supreme Self Ensouling the Cosmos	124
10. The Supreme Ruler and His Realm	134
11. The Supreme Owner and Master	147
12. The Supreme Names of God	158
13. The Supreme Form and Abode	167
14. The Merciful Protector and Savior	176
15. The Inner Mystery of God's Love	187
16. Rāmānuja as a Hindu Theologian	199
17. Rāmānuja's Relation to his Successors: The Problem of the Gadyas	212
18. The Divine Consort Śrī: The Problem of the Unity of the Divine Nature	238
19. Questions at the Limits of Phenomenological Understanding	252
Notes	273
Bibliography	317
Index	325