

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART ONE : INTEGRAL YOGA	...	1
Chapter I : Structure and Setting of the Essays	...	2
1. Composition and Division
2. Not a Gospel of Social Action	...	8
3. Withdrawal from Kurukshetra	...	15
Chapter II : The Antipodes : God and Man	...	23
4. Everyman and a God named Krishna
5. Speculative Framework	...	30
6. Corresponding Mystical Experiences	...	38
Chapter III : Descent and Ascent : Avatar and Sadhana	...	50
7. Man, a God in the Making
8. First Steps in Yoga	...	63
9. The Yoga of Works	...	72
Chapter IV : The First Summit : Siddhi	...	83
10. Equality
11. Liberty	...	92
12. Half-way Synthesis : Knowledge with Works	...	101
Chapter V : Triple Synthesis in Devotion	...	111
13. The Supreme Spirit and the Higher Nature	...	114
14. Divine Manifestation	...	133
15. Theoretical Foundations of Integral Yoga	...	147
PART TWO : MYSTICISM, YOGIC AND CHRISTIAN		159
Chapter VI : Activity and Karma-yoga	...	160
16. A Spirituality for Modern Man
17. Teilhard's Spirituality of Action	...	172
18. Divinising Action	...	184

Chapter VII : Passivity and Isolation	...	200
19. Teilhard's Twofold Passivity
20. Selfpossession and Selflessness	...	212
21. Action-Inaction and the Cross	...	228
Chapter VIII : Divine Milieu and Purushottama	..	241
22. Original Mystical Experience
23. Divine Omnipresence	...	250
24. Incarnation and Avatar	...	264
Chapter IX : Christian Virtue and Yogic Siddhi	...	278
25. Purity and Equality
26. Charity and Knowledge	...	289
27. Heaven and Hell	...	300
Chapter X : Adaptation	...	305
28. The Self Purified
29. The Impassible Self	...	316
30. Option	...	327
Appendix : Representatives of the 'Social' Interpretation of the Gita	...	337
Bibliography	...	341
Index	...	345
Errata	...	370