

Contents

---

Art/Literature/Religion: Life on the Borders	Robert Detweiler	1
Music Informing Spirit: A Commentary on the Theological Implications of Contemporary Music	Huntley Beyer and Rebecca Parker Beyer	7
Genre—The Larger Context	Mary Gerhart	19
Literary Criticism and Religious Consciousness: Marginalia on Albert Béguin, Georges Poulet, and Marcel Raymond	Peter Grotzer	31
Moral Order in Modern Literature and Criticism: The Challenge of the “new New Criticism”	Giles Gunn	45
The Religious Hermeneutic of Autobiography: Augustine’s Confessions and the Credo ut Intelligam	Janet Varner Gunn	61
Greek and Christian Tragedy: Notes Toward a Theology of Literary History	David H. Hesla	71
Of Ecstasy and Judgment: Three Moments in the Approach to Beauty	Erasmio Leiva-Merikakis	89
The New Generation of American Directors and Cinema’s Subversive Art	John R. May	107
“ Muthos is mouth”: Myth as Shamanic Utterance in Postmodern American Poetry	Daniel C. Noel	117
The Promise and the Pitfalls of Autobiographical Theology	Richard L. Rubenstein	125
The Rediscovery of Story in Recent Theology and the Refusal of Story in Recent Literature	Nathan A. Scott, Jr.	139
Poststructuralist Criticism and Biblical History	David Seeley	157
Religious-Imaginative Encounters with Scriptural Stories	John Shea	173
Literature and the Bible: A Comparatist’s Appeal	Theodore Ziolkowski	181
Art, Literature, and Religion: A Decade of Scholarship	Rosemary M. Magee	191
Notes on Contributors		199