

Contents

The Kenosis of the Father: A Feminist Midrash on the Gospel in Three Acts	1
Act I: The Kenosis of the Father	1
II: The Iconoclastic Teacher	3
III: Mary Magdalene's Witness	8
1. Feminist Theology: Methodology, Sources, and Norms	12
Women's Experience and Historical Tradition	12
Is There a Historical Tradition for Feminist Theology?	20
Conclusions	45
2. Sexism and God-Language: Male and Female Images of the Divine	47
The Goddess in the Ancient Near East	47
Male Monotheism and the Dualizing of Gender Metaphors	53
The Appropriation of the Goddess in Jewish and Christian Monotheism	54
God-Language Beyond Patriarchy in the Biblical Tradition	61
Toward a Feminist Understanding of God/ess	68
3. Woman, Body, and Nature: Sexism and the Theology of Creation	72
Roots of Domination	72

The Correlation of Dominated Woman/Dominated Nature in Hebrew and Greek Culture	75
The Trajectory of Alienation as Salvation from Nature	79
The Modern Return to Nature	82
Toward an Ecological-Feminist Theology of Nature	85
4. Anthropology: Humanity as Male and Female	93
Patriarchal Anthropology	94
Egalitarian Anthropologies	99
Toward a Feminist Anthropology Beyond Liberalism and Romanticism	109
5. Christology: Can a Male Savior Save Women?	116
Historical Background	116
The Patriarchalization of Christology	122
Alternative Christologies	127
A Feminist Christology?	134
6. Mariology as Symbolic Ecclesiology: Repression or Liberation?	139
The Patriarchal Feminine as Mater Ecclesia, Psyche, and Virgin Mary	139
Liberation Mariology: The Church as Humanity Redeemed from Sexism	152
7. The Consciousness of Evil: The Journeys of Conversion	159
Good and Evil as Male and Female	165
Sexism and Original Sin	173
Conversion from Sexism: Female and Male Journeys	183
8. Ministry and Community for a People Liberated from Sexism	193
Women and Ministry: Theologies of Exclusion and Inclusion	194

Ministry and Community for Liberation from Patriarchy	201
9. The New Earth: Socioeconomic Redemption from Sexism	214
Liberal Feminism	216
Socialist Feminism	223
Radical Feminism	228
Is There an Integrative Feminist Vision of Society?	232
10. Eschatology and Feminism	235
Does Feminism Have a Stake in Immortality?	235
Three Patterns of Hope	237
The Ambiguity of Christian Eschatology Toward Women	245
A Feminist Critique of Eschatology	250
Postscript: Woman/Body/Nature: The Icon of the Divine	259
The First Level: Control over the Womb	260
The Second Level: Exploited Labor	261
The Third Level: The Rape of the Earth and Its People	263
The Fourth Level: The Big Lie	264
The Collapse of the House of Cards: The Disclosure of Divine Wisdom	265
Notes	267
Index	286