

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments .....	vii
Sources and Abbreviations .....	ix
Authors' Biographies .....	xi
Preface .....	xv
Opening Remarks: Where Is Soul? Psychology in Modernity Greg Mogenson .....	xvii

WHERE IS SOUL?

1. Interiority and Accomplished Modernity Wolfgang Giegerich.....	1
2. Where Is Human Dignity in Modernity? Peter White .....	13
3. The Sky Ladder, Heinrich Schütz, and Searching for the Arcane Substance Pamela J. Power .....	27
4. Modern Technology as Antichrist John Hoedl.....	39
5. Consciousness, Entropy, and the Edge of the Psychological Philip Kime.....	59
6. Where Is the Love (with a Capital L)? Carmen Kobor .....	71
7. The Creation of Outer Space and the Birth of Man in Japan Kenji Kaneshiro .....	85

8. The State of Psychology in Japan: The Historical Transition of the Soul as Seen in Shinju (Love Suicide)
Tsuyoshi Inomata .....	99
9. Where Is Soul? A “Spiritual Problem” for Jung’s Time and our Own?
Paul Bishop .....	115
10. Aurum Vulgi: A Reflection on Simulation in Psychology and Its Philosophical and Historical Backdrop
Michael Whan.....	131
11. A Journey to Infinity: Bridging Consciousness across Traditions
Josep M. Moreno Alavedra.....	149
12. Minamata Disease as a Negation of Japan as an Anima World: A Consideration from the Life of Dr. Hajime Hosokawa
Jun Kitayama .....	165
Index .....	181