

CONTENTS

- |   |   |    |
|---|---|----|
| 1 | "A PROPHET IN THY ROOM" (1 Kings 19:15-21)      | 1  |
|   | The time and the place                          |    |
|   | Three periods of miracles                       |    |
|   | A type of Christ                                |    |
|   | Elijah and Elisha compared                      |    |
|   | The chosen successor                            |    |
|   | The meadow of the dance                         |    |
|   | A working farmer's son                          |    |
|   | Putting his hand to the plough                  |    |
|   | Preparation for a life's work                   |    |
| 2 | A DOUBLE PORTION (2 Kings 2:1-18)               | 12 |
|   | The journeying prophet                          |    |
|   | Which Gilgal?                                   |    |
|   | The last journey together                       |    |
|   | "Ask what I shall do for thee"                  |    |
|   | The chariots of Israel                          |    |
|   | Where is Elijah now?                            |    |
| 3 | WATER OF LIFE (2 Kings 2:19-22)                 | 20 |
|   | Problems of chronology                          |    |
|   | The healing of the waters                       |    |
|   | Blessing and curse                              |    |
| 4 | JUDGMENT AT THE HOUSE OF GOD (2 Kings 2:23-25)  | 24 |
|   | The prophet and his God are insulted            |    |
|   | Bethel becomes Beth-aven                        |    |
|   | Sudden destruction                              |    |
|   | The baldness of Elisha                          |    |
|   | Other thoughts about these first two miracles   |    |
| 5 | THE REBELLION OF MOAB (2 Kings 3)               | 30 |
|   | Strange allies                                  |    |
|   | The unforeseen crisis                           |    |
|   | The hidden years                                |    |
|   | Who can help now?                               |    |
|   | The Divine answer                               |    |
|   | The enemies of the Lord's people are vanquished |    |
|   | Concluding thoughts                             |    |
| 6 | AN ABUNDANCE OF OIL (2 Kings 4:1-7)             | 36 |
|   | A debt that cannot be paid                      |    |
|   | Borrow not a few                                |    |
|   | Applying the lesson                             |    |

- 7     RESURRECTION AT SHUNEM     (2 Kings 4:8-37)     40
 Standing again
 A room for the prophet
 The attitude of the husband
 A favour in return
 The tragedy at harvest time
 The reaction of the man of God
 "Neither voice, nor hearing"
 Women received their dead back to life again
- 8     THE HUNGRY MEN OF GILGAL     (2 Kings 4:38-44)     51
 Death in the pot
 "Set on the great pot"
 A savour of death
 "Then bring meal"
 Looking forward
 Food from Baal-shalisha - a hundred hungry men are fed
 The implications of the miracle
- 9     "WASH AND BE CLEAN"     (2 Kings 5 and Leviticus 13)     58
 Naaman the leper
 A young captive girl and her faith
 In search of a cure
 Only one way to be cured
 A changed man in body and mind
 A load of soil
 "Went not my heart with thee?"
 The New Testament reference in Luke 4
 Unanswered questions
 Another blow for the false gods
- 10    THE FLOATING AXE-HEAD     (2 Kings 6:1-7)     71
 A peculiar miracle
 A move to a larger home
 "Alas master!, for it was borrowed"
 No problem too small for the master
 New Testament parallels
 Recent discoveries and the floating axe-head
- 11    AWARENESS OF GOD'S PRESENCE     (2 Kings 6:8-23)     78
 How did he know?
 Telepathy - an unusual gift
 "Open his eyes, that he may see"
 Smitten with blindness
 How to treat an enemy

- 12 STRANGE EVENTS IN SAMARIA (2 Kings 6:24 to 7:2) 83
 Survival at all costs
 A startling prophecy
 The reasoning of the four lepers
 The deserted camp and the fleeing army
 "We do not well"
 Food for all at normal prices
 The death of the unbelieving lord
 What a change a day can make!
- 13 THE SEQUEL TO THE STORY OF THE SHUNEMMITE WOMAN 92
 Reminder of an earlier miracle (2 Kings 8:1-6)
 Timely advice acted upon
 Just a casual conversation?
 A lesson for us
 Historical footnote
- 14 INTRIGUE IN DAMASCUS (2 Kings 8:7-29) 96
 Am I going to get better?
 Elisha's strange reply
 A 'flashback' to Elijah's ministry
 Hazael takes over the kingship by murder
 The rest of the acts of Hazael
- 15 ZEAL - FOR CAUSES GOOD AND BAD (2 Kings 9 and 10) 102
 The anointing of Jehu - by proxy
 He driveth furiously
 The dogs eat Jezebel
 Seventy sons of Ahab killed
 The Rechabites
 The final verdict on Jehu
- 16 THE LESSON OF THE ARROWS (2 Kings 13:14-20) 110
 A long period of silence
 Elisha was fallen sick
 Lukewarmness
 "And Elisha died"
- 17 A STRANGE RESURRECTION (2 Kings 13:20,21) 114
 Not quite the end of the story
 Other revivals
 The work goes on
- 18 CONCLUSION FOR THE TIME BEING 117