

CONTENTS

Preface	xi
Note to the Second Edition	xii
Abbreviations	xiii
General bibliography	xix

INTRODUCTION

1. The Title	1
2. Division and Characteristics	4
3. Redaction of the 'Main Body'	5
4. Chronology	6
5. Text and Translations	12

COMMENTARY

Part One: Traditions on the Conquest (1.1–2.5)	15
Part Two: The 'Main Body' of the Book (2.6–16.31)	35
2.6–3.6 The Deuteronomistic Introduction	37
3.7–11 The Judge Othniel	45
3.2–30 The Judge Ehud	48
3.31 Shamgar ben Anath	57
4–5 Deborah and Barak as Judges	60
(a) Chapter 4	60
(b) Chapter 5	79
6–8 Gideon	102
(i) The Calling and Mission of Gideon (ch. 6)	109
(a) The Midianite oppression (6.1–10)	109
(b) Gideon and the altar at Ophrah (6.11–24)	113

	(c) Gideon destroys the sanctuary of Baal at Ophrah (6.25–32)	122
	(d) The call to arms against Midian (6.33–35)	129
	(e) The test of the fleece (6.36–40)	131
	(ii) Campaign in Cisjordan (7.1–8.3)	134
	(a) The troops of the tribal league and the three hundred Abiezrites (7.1–8)	134
	(b) Favourable omens (7.9–15)	140
	(c) The attack (7.16–22)	142
	(d) The capture of two princes of Midian (7.23–8.3)	146
	(iii) Campaign in Transjordan (8.4–35)	148
	(a) Gideon in Transjordan (8.4–12)	148
	(b) Gideon's feud and vendetta (8.13–21)	153
	(c) Anti-monarchical epilogue (8.22–32)	157
	(d) Conclusion (8.33–35)	161
9.1–57	The Reign of Abimelech	162
	(a) Abimelech becomes king (9.1–6)	166
	(b) Jotham's apologue (9.7, 8–15)	171
	(c) Jotham's speech (9.[7] 16–21)	171
	(d) First difficulties between Abimelech and the men of Shechem (9.22–25)	179
	(e) Gaal's conspiracy (9.26–29)	183
	(f) Abimelech's first campaign (9.30–41)	186
	(g) The second campaign and the destruction of Shechem (9.42–45)	190
	(h) The destruction of the 'Tower of Shechem' (9.46–49)	191
	(i) The death of Abimelech (9.50–55)	193
	(j) Final comments (9.56f.)	193
10.1–5	The First List of 'Minor' Judges	195
10.6–12.7	Jephthah	201
	(a) Prologue: Deuteronomistic introduction (10.6–18)	201
	(b) The appointment of Jephthah (10.17–11.11)	203
	(c) The delegation to the Ammonites (11.12–28)	208
	(d) Jephthah's vow (11.29–40)	213
	(e) The civil war between Gideon and Ephraim (12.1–7)	219
12.8–15	The Second List of 'Minor' Judges	223
13–16	Samson	225
	(a) The miraculous birth (ch. 13)	232
	(b) Samson's first wedding (ch. 14)	237
	(c) Samson, incendiary and warrior (ch. 15)	244
	(d) Other exploits and the death of Samson (ch. 16)	250

Part Three: Appendix on Various Themes (chs. 17–21) 261

17–18	The Migration of Dan and the Origins of its Sanctuary	264
	(a) Micah's idol (17.1–6)	264
	(b) The levite, Micah's priest (17.7–13)	266
	(c) The Danites explore (18.1–7)	270
	(d) The beginning of the Danite migration (18.8–13)	273
	(e) The capture of Micah's image (18.14–21)	274
	(f) Micah's reaction (18.22–26)	275
	(g) The capture of Laish (18.27–31)	275
19–21	The Civil War against Benjamin	279
	(a) The levite and his concubine (19.1–9)	283
	(b) The arrival at Gibeah (19.10–21)	285
	(c) The outrage of the inhabitants of Gibeah	287
	(d) The publicity given to the outrage (19.29f.)	289
	(e) The assembly of the tribes of Israel (20.1–11)	289
	(f) The demands made on the Benjaminites (20.12–17)	291
	(g) The first two battles and defeats (20.18–28)	292
	(h) The third battle and the Israelite victory (20.29–48)	293
	(i) Women of Jabesh for Benjamin (21.1–14)	297
	(j) The rape of the women of Shiloh (21.15–25)	298
	Additional bibliographies	306