

CONTENTS

Preface	7
Abbreviations	9
Select Bibliography	11

HAGGAI

Introduction	17
1. The Times	19
2. The Book	31
Prose or Poetry	31
Form of the Book	32
Form of Haggai's Speeches	36
Composition	37
Text	39
Commentary	41
1:1–11 While this house lies in ruins	41
1:12–15a They worked on the house of Yahweh	55
1:15b–2:9 Is it not as nothing in your eyes?	60
2:10–14 That which they bring near is unclean	70
2:15–19 From this day on, I will send blessings	85
2:20–23 I will take you, O Zerubbabel	96

ZECHARIAH 1-8

Introduction		109
1. The Person		109
2. The Book		110
Prologue		110
The Visions		111
The Oracles		120
Formation of the Book		124
Text		125
Commentary		127
1:1-6	As for your fathers, where are they?	127
1:7-17	All the earth is dwelling peacefully	136
2:1-4[1:18-21E]	I looked and saw four horns	160
2:5-9 [1-5E]	I will be to her as a wall of fire	166
2:10-17 [6-13E]	Flee from the northland	172
3:1-10	I have removed your guilt from you	186
4:1-6a, 10b-14	I see a lampstand, all of it is gold	214
4:6b-10a	Not by might, not by power	237
5:1-4	I looked up and saw a flying scroll	245
5:5-11	This is wickedness	254
6:1-8	Go out, range over the earth	263
6:9-15	The crowns will be a memorial	272
7:1-3	Shall I weep and fast?	281
7:4-7	Do you not eat and drink for yourselves?	284
7:8-14	Then I blew them away with a storm	288
8:1-17	Thus says Yahweh of Hosts	296
8:18-23	The fasts shall become happy assemblies	312