

Contents

Editor's Note: Using this Guide	vii
Further Reading	x
Introduction: The Prophet Isaiah and the Book of Isaiah	1
Guidelines for Bible Reading and Study	8
1.1–9: Rebellious Sons	10
1.10–20: False Standards of Worship	17
1.21—2.5: Jerusalem: Present Corruption–Future Perfection	23
2.6–22: 'The Lord Alone will be Exalted'	32
3.1—4.1: Social Break-down	39
4.2—5.7: The Zion of the Future and God's Vineyard	45
5.8–23: Woe to the Oppressors	52
Special Note 1: The Historical Context of the Book as a Whole	60
6.1–13: Isaiah's Vision and his Call	63
7.1–9: Isaiah's Warning to Ahaz	73
7.10–25: The Sign of Immanuel	77
8.1–22(23): 'Bind up the Testimony'	82
9.1–7: The Hoped-for King	89
9.8—10.4 and 5.24–30: God's Anger against His People	94
10.5–34: God Controls History	100
11.1—12.6: The Perfect King and the Second Exodus	105
Special Note 2: How and Why Isaiah 1—39 was Put Together	112
13.1—17.14: The Fate of the Nations – Part 1	115
18.1—21.17: The Fate of the Nations – Part 2	123
22.1—23.18: The Fate of the Nations – Part 3	131
24.1—25.17: Chaos to Come and Songs of Praise	136
26.1—27.13: Visions of the Future	145

CONTENTS

28.1–29: Leaders who Fail to Lead	153
29.1–14: Distress and Deliverance of Ariel – Part 1	160
29.15–24: Distress and Deliverance of Ariel – Part 2	167
30.1–17: ‘Egypt’s Help is Worthless’	172
30.18–33: ‘The Lord Waits to be Gracious’	178
31.1–9: Messages of Threat and Salvation – Part 1	186
32.1–20: Messages of Threat and Salvation – Part 2	192
33.1–34: Present Destruction and Future Deliverance	199
34.1–17: ‘Judgement upon Edom’	207
35.1–10: The ‘Holy Way’	213
Special Note 3: Prophets and their Function	219
36.1—37.7: A Crisis for King Hezekiah – The 1st Account	224
37.8–38: A Crisis for King Hezekiah – The 2nd Account	231
38.1—39.8: Hezekiah’s Sickness and Recovery	240
Key to Study Suggestions	248
Index	258